Montreal.—Rev. Alfred Valerety, eighty-four, former provincial and assistant-general of the Holy Cross Congregation.

New York.—Dr. Henry McMahon Painter, seventy, authority on obstetrics.
Philadelphia.—John Loughran, sixty-two, father of Tommy Loughran, boxer.

PROPERTIES FOR HAPSBURGS

Vienna, March 12.—The official government gazette devoted an entire page yesterday to a description of properties confiscated from the banished Hapsburg royal family, which both Heimwehr and legitimist leaders have been demanding lately should be returned to their rightful owners. In many quarters this was interpreted as foreshadowing revocation of the post-war laws that set the Hapsburgs off the throne and made their property a part of the Austrian republic.

WANT MEETINGS FREE OF POLICE*Labor Defence League Will Bar Them, A. E. Smith Says In Toronto

Toronto, March 12.—A. E. Smith, general secretary of the Canadian Labor Defence League, acquitted last week of a charge of seditious utterance involving Prime Minister Bennett, had moved to-day to exclude Toronto police from future meetings of the league.

Mr. Smith yesterday evening challenged the right of police officers and shorthand stenographers in police employ to attend the meetings, and said steps would be taken to bar them. His assertion was greeted with enthusiasm by the large audience.

The former Methodist minister denounced the government and declared: "Comrades, we must look forward and build towards a Soviet Canada." He said: "It is becoming more and more difficult for the lying outfit that leads the Conservative and Liberal parties to make people believe their lies."

INQUIRY DENOUNCED
He described as "legislative trickery" to protect the capitalists from the uprising working class laws regarding seditious libel, seditious utterance and writing and bankruptcy. He denounced the parliamentary mass buying committee as a "huge fraud, a deliberate fraud and an organized piece of fraud." He said it was a "downright piece of deception" to make the workers "believe something."

Mr. Smith described Toronto police as "dishonest men" who made "dishonest reports." "When we speak," he added, "our words are interpreted by these persons as disorder. When you applaud, the meeting is disorder. When a Conservative meeting applauds it is merely enthusiasm. These are the kind of contemptible men we have to deal with."

Mention of the names of Detective-Sergeant William Nurey and Acting Detective William Mann, members of the "red" squad, brought hisses and boos from the audience.

Mr. Smith spoke of his trial, and said he had been acquitted by a jury "picked by Mr. Nurey and Mr. Peter White, crown counsel. Their own jury, their own hand-picked jury, returned a verdict of not guilty."

ONTARIO JUDGE IS CALLED BY DEATH*Mr. Justice Eric Armour Dies At Home in Ontario

Canadian Press

Toronto, March 12.—Mr. Justice Eric Norman Armour of the Ontario Supreme Court died suddenly at his home here yesterday following a heart attack.

Born fifty-seven years ago, he was appointed to the bench March 17 last year after distinguished services as a lawyer and in France during the Great War.

Until his appointment to the bench he had acted as crown attorney in Toronto.

He served as courtmartial officer of the Canadian Corps in France from 1916 to 1919.

Born in Cobourg, Ont., February 15, 1877, he was the sixth son of the late Chief Justice John D. Armour.
In the Dominion general election of 1904 he unsuccessfully contested the riding of West Northumberland as a Conservative.

He went overseas as a major with the 95th Battalion in 1915.
The widow and two children survive him.

EX-AVIATION HEAD DIES

Melbourne, Australia, March 12 (Canadian Press).—Col. H. C. Brinsmead, former controller of civil aviation in Australia, died here yesterday. He had suffered from paralysis following the crash in 1931 at Bangkok, Siam, of a Dutch mail plane in which he was a passenger.

STAVISKY JEWELS FOUND BY POLICE*Orleans Pawnshop Brought Into Growing Investigation in France

Associated Press

Paris, March 12.—Another city's pawnshop—the Credit Municipal of Orleans—was brought to-day into the widening investigation of the Stavisky scandal.

The manager and appraiser of the Orleans institution were in custody on charges of receiving stolen goods as a result of finding by police of the missing Stavisky jewels, which were found to have been placed in pawn before the death of Serge Stavisky.

It was the Orleans pawnshop where Stavisky was supposed to have attempted fraudulent operations before organizing his great Credit Municipal in Bayonne.

A police report said he pawned his emeralds there in 1929 for 15,000,000 francs. The stones were found to be false, the report added, but Stavisky had redeemed them.

The report continued that the man who was then manager of the Orleans pawnshop later became an associate of Stavisky and was recently arrested. Indictments in the great Stavisky scandal which has caused the downfall of two French governments reached twenty-two yesterday with the arrest of a pugilist described as bodyguard for the late Serge Stavisky.

BOLD THEFTS IN VANCOUVER*Cash, Cheques, Jewelry and Shoes Taken in Week-end Robberies

Canadian Press

Vancouver, March 12.—Cash, cheques, jewelry and general merchandise, valued at $480, were obtained by thieves and purse-snatchers here at the week-end, according to reports to police.

While seated in the home of a neighbor, Mrs. J. Pearce, 800 block of Howe Street, was the victim of a smash and grab thief and saw her purse disappear from in front of her very eyes. The thief, apparently seeing the bag through the window, smashed the glass, reached in and grabbed it from the table on which it was lying and fled. The purse contained only forty cents.

Gaining entrance by breaking a small window in the rear of the shop, burglars ransacked the Christenson Shoe Store on East Hastings Street and escaped with forty-five pairs of shoes valued at $300. Police, who discovered the robbery, believe a truck was used to take away the stolen merchandise.

Prowlars who gained entrance to the home of T. W. Telford, 1409 block of Seventeenth Avenue East, during his absence, took jewelry valued at $135.

ENTERED THROUGH WINDOW
The home of M. A. Bush, 3400 block West Eighteenth Avenue, was entered by way of an unlocked bathroom window and the thieves escaped with $26 in cash as well as clothing and bedding.

Cheques to the value of $16 were obtained by thieves who forced the mail box of Mrs. S. Kotani, in the hall of the apartment in which she lives.

Mrs. M. Doren, 700 block of Hawkes Avenue, reported to police that, while walking near her home, a thug snatched her handbag which contained $3 in cash and a few personal papers.

PRICE FIXING FOR U.S. FARMS URGED

Des Moines, Ia., March 12.—Two hundred United States farm leaders endorsed a demand for governmental price fixing of agricultural commodities at the conclusion of a two-day conference called by Governor Olson of Minnesota. The group also indirectly endorsed a programme of compulsory production control.

DISARMAMENT PLANS BACKED*Canadians Continue to Advocate Reductions, Says Hon. R. J. Manion

Canadian Press

Ottawa, March 12.—Canadians will continue to advocate disarmament, "for we realize war is a crime and should be treated as such," said Hon. R. J. Manion, Minister of Railways and Canals, speaking here yesterday.

"Anything we can do to implement the Kellogg pact, that war be renounced and that disputes be settled peacefully, we should do. Until those terms are accepted, there is certainly a danger our civilization will be annihilated."

Dr. Manion spoke under the auspices of the League of Nations Society and the Association of Canadian Clubs. Large armaments inevitably led to war, he said. He sketched the complex situation in Europe, where "in an area half that of Canada, some twenty-seven nations live side by side, with governmental systems, different languages and customs, puzzling minority problems, and with trade barriers and national frontiers dividing them."

Less confidence and feeling of security to-day than at any time since the war was due largely to conflicting of opposing groups in the European world, Dr. Manion said.

He referred to these clashing policies and stated it was "on these irreconcilable differences that the Disarmament Conference broke down."

BIG CHICAGO HUNT FOR BANDIT

Associated Press

Chicago, March 12.—Detective squads armed with machine guns raided eight apartment houses on the northwest side yesterday in search of John Dillinger.

Acting on a tip the phantom fugitive had rented flats in the neighborhood to use as hideouts until the intensity of the search for him died out, the officers swept in to the apartment but found no trace of Dillinger.

BUTTER STORAGE SHOWS DECREASE

Ottawa, March 12.—Canada still had 6,986,365 pounds of creamery butter in cold storage on March 1. There was also 52,661 pounds of dairy butter. The cold storage report was issued to-day by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. On March 1 a year ago, the total creamery in storage was 9,711,322 and the dairy 19,354. The average for five years as on March 1 was 10,513,615 pounds of creamery and 149,984 pounds of dairy.

NEW CANCER STUDY REPORTED

Philadelphia, March 12.—Cancer cell structure secrets uncovered by a new advance of microscopy are announced in a report to the Franklin Institute by Dr. Francis P. Lucas of the Bell Laboratories.

By a new use of the energy in invisible ultra-violet rays to analyze the stuff of which malignancy may be made, he unlocks a storehouse of information about living cells.

Dr. Lucas, in co-operation with Dr. Mary B. Stark of New York City, has carried on for several years a systematic investigation in living rodent tumors with the object of developing new methods for studying cell structures.

Especially Dr. Lucas turned his energy on the nucleus of the cancer cell, the centre of its life. Within the nucleus, scientists suspect, lies the mechanism which produces the wild growth of cancer.

Natives Demand U.S. Citizenship

Washington, March 12.—Just as United States is working out plans for getting rid of the Philippines, the natives of the Island of Guam demand of President Roosevelt that they be declared United States citizens.

A petition signed by 1,965 of them avers that all under the age of fifty have been taught English, that they lose this country, its flag, and the principles of the constitution, that they are not polygamists or anarchists, and that they "fervently aspire" to citizenship.

MR. KING'S GOOD ADVICE

WHILE MR. MACKENZIE KING TOLD the House of Commons the other day that the official opposition did not propose to obstruct progress of the government's bill to incorporate the Bank of Canada, he and his followers naturally reserved to themselves the right to propose, at the proper time, such amendments as they may regard as appropriate and necessary. The opposition leader, however, made his party's stand perfectly clear on several of the most important features of the proposed measure.

Mr. King placed special emphasis on his contention that the bank to be established should in no sense be, or permitted to become, a bankers' bank, for he regards the function of a central bank in the world of banking and finance as one of subordinating the special to the general interest, or, as he put it more precisely, that of subordinating the private interest in banking and credit to the public interest. He amplified this point as follows: "It is, and ought to be, a government bank, the government being representative of the interests of the country as a whole. Its main purpose is, and should be, to protect the public interest in banking and credit."

The opposition leader, however, does not consider that the provisions of the bill as drafted "go far enough to secure these ends and that as the bill now stands there is a possibility of private interests exercising the control, which, under a measure of the kind, should be secured to the state." He warns the government that special attention will have to be given to the consideration of the regulatory powers necessary to effect such control in the public interest. Mr. King then emphasized his party's general attitude toward two fundamental aspects of the bill in the following words:

"The provisions of the bill should be such as to ensure the Central Bank of Canada will in no way be in danger of becoming subordinated in the discharge of any of its functions to the banking institutions, either of Great Britain or the United States or any other country."

"We believe the personnel of its board of directors, including the governor, deputy governor and assistant deputy governor, should not only be British subjects, but persons ordinarily resident in Canada. With Canada's experience and reputation and position in the banking world what it is, we are confident there can be secured by a Canadian central bank an efficient and highly qualified personnel which will be wholly Canadian."

It ought to be taken for granted that the government will heed the advice of Mr. King, especially as to the basic function of the bank in the public interest, while, of course, there should be no question of going outside of the Dominion for the personnel of the bank's board of directors and its chief executive officers.

A YOUTH REQUIRING DIRECTION

THE $800,000 FIRE WHICH DESTROYED the Illinois state arsenal at Springfield, the state capital, a few weeks ago, was all the work of a ten-year-old boy who liked to see the flames.

It was the governor of Illinois himself who verified this amazing fact. The youngster readily confessed everything. He told how he had set the blaze, had scamped home to read a textbook entitled "of all things—'Good Citizenship,'" and then had returned to watch the disastrous conflagration he had caused.

As soon as he had made this bizarre confession, the lad was lodged in a detention home to await the arrival of learned psychiatrists, who were to question him in an effort to find out what on earth possessed him.

In a case like this, we come up against one of the most tragic and puzzling riddles that life can offer. An old-time theologian probably would explain it on the basis of original sin or demonic possession, and a modern psychiatrist probably will have something equally pat to say about complexes, inhibitions, and whatnot. But, in either case, we face one of those queer, incomprehensible quirks that crop out every now and then to bewilder and dismay us.

Such things remind us that we do not know nearly as much about the main springs of human behavior as we think we do. Why should an intelligent, pleasant-faced child give way to an insane impulse like this, anyway? How could the adults who have charge of his training have foreseen such a thing?

What can be done, now that the catastrophe has taken place, to keep the lad's life from being wrecked, and make it possible for him to develop into a happy and useful member of society? We know the answers to none of those questions. But out of the general bewilderment we can, perhaps, draw a new understanding of the obligation that lies upon all adults in respect to children; the obligation to try to understand, to sympathize, to be as wise and helpful as our limitations permit.

The world of childhood is a strange place, and it can be peopled by queer, grisly shadows. We can not know all that goes on in it, nor can we understand all that we do know. But we at least can be forever alert to help, to advise, to comfort, and to warn.

NOT SO BAD AFTER ALL

IF THE MAN WHO RAISED THE scuttled German warships in Scapa Flow expected to find it a highly-profitable undertaking he was sadly disillusioned. He has just stated in a London public address that he spent ten years of labor and $500,000 on the job and is out $10,000. It cost him $75,000 to lift the battleship Hindenburg and he sold it for just that sum.

However, this is to take only a partial view of the matter. Most people would say that a business enterprise which spent $500,000 in these last ten years and now has $490,000 in hand is doing very well indeed. Nowadays if a $75,000 battleship is sold for $75,000 the result is a handsome profit. The British salvagers need only ask themselves what would have happened to their $500,000 if they had invested it in many other enterprises, instead of depositing it, so to speak, on the bottom of the North Sea.

A BRIGHTER PICTURE

A TABULATION RECENTLY MADE by the National City Bank of New York shows how the revival of the last twelve months has improved the status of industries in the neighboring republic.

This tabulation embraced some 810 corporations divided among thirty-seven industrial groups. In 1932 the operations of these 810 concerns showed a net deficit of $46,000,000. In 1933 they had net profits of $440,000,000. Similarly, in 1932 only forty per cent of these firms operated at a profit. Last year the percentage rose to sixty-two.

Figures like these indicate that the improvement of the last year in the United States was very real and substantial. It becomes more and more evident that our neighbors have rounded that long-avoided "corner." We in Canada are feeling the effects of better times with them; but we ought to be striking out more vigorously for ourselves. Our own problems require the application of specific Canadian formulas.

THE TOURIST BUSINESS

THOSE DIRECTLY INTERESTED IN tourist travel from the United States to Canada are wondering what effect the new liquor laws of the neighboring republic will have upon the annual influx of visitors. They seem especially concerned about this in the East. It is said that the Quebec liquor law which imposes fewer restrictions than those of Ontario is or has been an attraction to United States tourists, whereas Ontario's stricter regulations offer no encouragement.

Both provinces are adjacent to thickly-settled portions of the republic. In Ontario the number of border points where automobiles can cross is limited. In Quebec every north and south road and many east and west roads lead into Canada so that it is as easy to tour in one province as in another. Therefore a comparison of the tourist traffic in each province is informative. The official figures for 1933 are as follows:

Limit of stay:	Ontario	Quebec
Twenty-four hours	1,944,643	199,313
Sixty days	494,304	237,007
Over sixty days	150	68

If the figures we have quoted mean anything at all, they mean that the attractions of the Dominion as far as the regulations governing the sale and consumption of liquor are concerned, have had very little to do with the tourist "industry" of this country. It is to be noted, however, that the figures published by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics relating to this business for 1933 showed a decline in the amount expended in Canada by holidaymakers. The total is given as $115,000,000, being $97,000,000 less than 1932. Canadian tourists abroad spent $50,000,000 or $7,000,000 less than the preceding year. These figures include all tourists.

Part of the decline is due to smaller expenditures by individual visitors. Average rates of spending are obtained by circulating tourists. It is done by the United States Department of Commerce, and Canada co-operates in the work. In 1932 the average spending was $11.50 by one-day visitors; $106.25 by those taking sixty-day visiting permits, and $582 by those obtaining permits for six months. In 1933 the corresponding averages were $7.75, $63.50 and $234.

This decrease in the spending by visitors last year, of course, was not an unexpected consequence of the serious economic conditions obtaining in the United States. Although a decided improvement had set in before the summer was over, many of those who in the ordinary way would have come north for their vacation no doubt considered it prudent to holiday at home, while those who did come to Canada perhaps felt it advisable to do it on a very modest scale.

Incidentally, and apart altogether from what the figures of Ontario and Quebec show as to the force of the argument about liquor, it is now more than ever imperative that Canada put as much warmth and persuasion as possible into her publicity literature advertising our attractions in other countries. A year or so ago our tourist business was worth nearly $300,000,000.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

OUTRAGE ON JUSTICE
 The Border Cities Star

The thing that really outrages one's sense of justice is that native-born Canadians and others in their homes, in their clubs and elsewhere, can gamble to their hearts' content, seven days and seven nights a week, without interference. It has always seemed to us that the Chinese have had the bad end of the deal, that there has been discrimination against them in this respect. Can anyone tell us the difference between a game of poker in John Jones's drawing-room or Bill Smith's kitchen and a game of fan-tan in the back of a laundry or the cellar of a restaurant?

AID STABILIZATION
 The Winnipeg Free Press

Internationally, the gold bill is important in several respects. If, as seems likely, the American dollar is to stay pegged at 50 cents, a stabilizing influence will be introduced in foreign exchange and world trade will be facilitated. Day-to-day uncertainty about the exchange value of currency units has been a serious handicap to exporters and importers. Stabilization of the United States dollar at 50 cents will make the present chaos less chaotic. It will also help American export trade. But it is perhaps more significant internationally as a prelude to joint action by the leading powers to stabilize currencies, an objective which the World Economic Conference last summer failed to attain.

Loose Ends

Mayor Leeming asks a humorous question which no one can answer—Princess Yousouf finds virtue's wages are higher than sin's—there is bloom, but not enough—and Miss Snipe isn't pacifist even yet.

By H. B. W.

OUR SYSTEM

MAYOR LEEMING, whom Victoria is lucky to have at the head of its municipal business, paused the other morning in addressing the Private Bills Committee of the Legislature and made this notable utterance: "Before we go any further in this business we ought to decide whether we are trying to preserve the capitalist system or not, because lots of things we are doing now are tending to destroy it." No one answered Mr. Leeming. Every one looked very solemn, and after a decent pause the business went on. When I laughed from my humble place in a corner, a lot of fellows looked at me disapprovingly. Apparently no one else appreciated the humor of it.

But the mayor's question, which many worthy men are asking themselves, is very humorous. It is humorous, I mean, to imagine that the parliaments and governments of the world are trying to save the capitalist system or any other system. Of course they're not. They're just plugging along from day to day and doing what they have to do to keep things going. As a result of their tinkering, the capitalist system will not be saved. As we know it before the war, the capitalist system is just about finished now. Roosevelt has "knocked it into a cocked hat" to the south of us, and after a while we in Canada may begin to do something about the depression also, if it is not too late.

Obviously we are not preserving the capitalist system or destroying it either. We are not adopting socialism or rejecting it either. Piece by piece, moving with the small speed of a democratic society, we are evolving an entirely new system which will be neither capitalism nor socialism or anything else which you can put a fancy name to.

We are in the very throes of the greatest revolution in history (as our legislators like to point out, having no more idea than you or I what it means). We shall have a new system one of these days, but it will come so gradually, by such piecemeal changes, by monetary reforms, control of industry and so forth, that we shall never realize what has happened.

After the new system has been brought into being, we shall thank God that we survived these times without any impairment of our good old institutions. And even after that we shall go on changing all over again as is the habit of the human animal, and hundred years from now the mayor of Victoria, no doubt, will be asking some committee of the legislature whether it is going to save the existing system or not. I hope there will be some profane fellow present then to laugh brutally and insult the legislators.

LIBEL
 THE VERDICT OF a British court awarding huge damages, the amount of which I forget, to the Russian Princess Somebody-or-Other, whose name escapes me, because she was libeled in the film "Rasputin and the Empress," opens up many interesting possibilities. Because the alleged counterpart of the princess in the film was reduced by Rasputin the jury decided that the real princess' blameless reputation had been grievously injured and agreed to offer her financial compensation in a big way which, as one editor points out, shows that the wages of virtue are far greater after all than the wages of sin. And as the princess now proposes to sue every theatre where the objectionable picture was shown her pure life should become an asset worth a good many millions of dollars.

But what of the innumerable others whose reputations have been ruined by the movies? The newspaper business, for example, has a prima facie case of slander against the entire film industry, for since it started to picture the inside of newspaper offices newspaper men have felt like thugs and gangsters and have slunk down dark alleys. Newspaper columnists have been represented as such disgusting fellows that I seldom go to town any more except under the cover of darkness. The legal profession, pictured invariably as the tool of the underworld, has a definite claim for damages. Since nine out of ten heroines are represented as indiscreet, to say the least, the female sex should have no difficulty making out a case. When you get right down to it, the entire human race is being slandered daily on millions of feet of celluloid, but the Princess Yousouf is the only one who has had the sense to cash in on it.

BLOOM
 VICTORIA, AS SOME of my up-country friends in the Legislature have observed lately, is quite a sight these days. What strikes all these visitors most is the bloom of the Japanese plum trees on those few streets where the city fathers had enough sense to plant them. It is a sight that these trees have spread all over Victoria of late years. When I first came here, about a century or so ago, a Japanese plum tree was a rare curiosity. Few people knew what they were ten years back. Now you see them by the dozen. They seem to grow here to perfection. Once you plant them you can just go away and forget about them, and they have a certain light, feathery perfection that you don't find in any other tree.

If Victorians would plant a few thousands more of them all over the place we should become as famous as Japan in cherry blossom time. People would come here from distant parts just to see "Victoria in the spring," and if you must have an economic justification for everything, they would spend more each year than the original investment in the trees. We think Victoria is lovely now, but it could be far lovelier if we knew as much about gardening and the planting of trees as we know about cutting them down. In that we are skilled experts.

DAFFODILS

ANOTHER ATTEMPT to pacify Miss Snipe, who is Public Enemy Number One out this way, failed disastrously to-day.

"Well, you see," said the little girl from next door, "it was this way—we decided to pick some flowers for Miss Snipe, 'cause Miss Snipe she likes flowers, 'cause she has no children to make her happy and can't afford to get any at the hospital."

"On boy," said her brother, with a fiendish chuckle. "So we went up the hill to get Miss Snipe some flowers and I picked a whole big bunch of 'em, but my little brother he didn't come with me, 'cause his legs are so small he can't climb the big hill."

"Too small," said he sadly. "So after a while I came down the hill with a great big bunch of flowers to put on Miss Snipe's doorstep so she'd get 'em when she came home for supper."

"Daffies," said he.

"He means Miss Snipe, she has a big bed of daffodils out in front of her house what she is very proud of and she's just coming out into bloom now."

"Oh goah," said he with another grisly laugh. "So, what do you think? When I came down the hill with all the nice wild flowers who do you think I found on Miss Snipe's veranda? Why that bad boy of a brother of mine, he'd gone and picked all those daffodils and put them on the veranda, right in front of the door, and there wasn't one left in Miss Snipe's garden, not a single one. In fact that's how that little brat had given flowers to Miss Snipe, if you please, to make her happy!"

"Ho, ho," said he with a brutal leer.

"But we didn't stay to see if she was happy. We went away from there pretty quick and we've been hiding ever since because we don't want Miss Snipe to expect who did it. I hope she doesn't expect."

"Whoopee," said her brother.

Twenty-five Years Ago To-day

THE VICTORIA DAILY TIMES
 March 12, 1908
 (From The Times Files)

There is every likelihood that Victorians will be so delighted with the speech of C. C. Chapman in this city on the occasion of the organization of the Vancouver Island Publicity League, will have another opportunity shortly of hearing that gifted orator and apostle of publicity.

The Indians of Spoke report that the lobsters imported to this Coast last year are alive and thriving, and that the nucleus of a good colony is being established at a number of bays between here and Race Rocks.

He will have control of the construction and operation of the railway as well as of the land clearing operations on Vancouver Island, and will report direct to R. ## THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By ALINE MICHAELS

INHERITANCE
 One grandmother left me a ruby pin,
 With a shawl from across the sea
 And a chest full of lace so fine and thin
 They are as frail as man's charity.
 And one grandmother left me a smiling
 And eyes that can see no wrong,
 With a heart that is as ardent and warm as
 The sun.
 And a spirit attuned to song.
 One grandmother left me a house on a hill
 And a name which is old and proud
 The other one gave me a steadfast will
 That can never be quelled or cowed.
 They were dear old souls and I loved them
 In a dutiful grandchild's way:
 But the steady house I may have to sell,
 While the smile on my lips will stay.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

To the Editor:—In the past we have been informed by cards in the street cars and also through the columns of The Buzzer of the far-reaching evil of motorists transporting customers of the B.C. Electric car service. It is common talk that by a vote of the B.C. Car Drivers' Union, the contract for the supplying of uniforms has been sent east. If the above report is true, the propaganda carried on by the British Columbia Electric Railway to combat the pick-up evils is considerably weakened.

I understand the wages paid our taxmen are the largest paid in the province for non-skilled labor. How happy a lot of good men on relief would be to get a job, and no doubt be glad to spend it where they like. Although property is just around the corner, it is wise for all to remember that a dollar spent at home is worth three spent out of the city or province.

A CAR RIDER

ASKING FOR INFORMATION

To the Editor:—In the discussion which is taking place over the local radio situation a local organization described as the Radio Listener's Club has been much in evidence. A representative of this club is reported to have informed a meeting of the City Council that his association represents the ratepayers of Victoria. As one of the latter, I am common with many others, would like to know by what, or whose authority these gentlemen make their claims? Perhaps a responsible officer of the club will enlighten us.

More than money is needed

What more can a man leave his family than everything he possesses?

In addition to leaving property and securities he can leave them the protection of a corporate executor.

It is expedient to leave the estate in trust for the wife and children because there are so many unscrupulous people ready to take advantage of the inexperienced.

sibly owing to a temperamental inability to entertain any idea unconnected with wealth and privilege.

Cutting the costs of education does not affect the children of the rich, who can be sent to private schools, and can easily pay their way through a university, but is a fatal handicap to those children who must perforce obtain their education at the public schools, and have great difficulty in providing the fees necessary for a university course. The children thus handicapped are probably between eighty and ninety per cent of the rising generation.

Sir Henry and his backers appear to be more than willing that the great majority of young Canadians should start life under this handicap. Their attitude is understandable. Less taxation means relief to the harassed millionaire and less education for the sons of the poor means reduced competition for the sons of the rich. But while understandable, this attitude cannot be considered patriotic in spite of the fact that the school of political and economic thought represented by Sir Henry appears to consider itself possessed of a monopoly of that virtue.

It is possible that when making his "reply" Sir Henry's mind was impervious to the above considerations. They should be drawn to his attention. If Sir Henry and his friends really wish to economize, why don't they begin with the jails? One year taken off a child's schooling only saves $73, whereas taken off a convict's sentence it means a saving of $350. It seems curious that great business minds should overlook such obvious opportunities for retrenchment, especially as the jail population has almost doubled during the last few years. Why not begin with Tim Buck, Sir Henry? Put this suggestion before Mr. Bennett and take care.

POLICE DOGS

To the Editor:—Re headline in to-night's Times, Police Dog, might I suggest the powers that be definitely decide on a name for these mysterious police dogs, if indeed there is any such breed, and not a conglomeration of many. We breeders of German shepherds on Vancouver Island feel that we back in undesirable publicity when police dogs are referred to, due to the fact that in Germany, the country of origin, the degree P.H. (polizhund) is only given to dogs who have completed their training and passed the tests allotted them, thus giving them the right to legally use the prefix police dog.

I am sure the animals referred to in our daily papers are not of this class, as the price of a dog carrying the P.H. degree runs into hundreds of dollars. We breeders of German shepherds register our dogs as such with the Canadian livestock records in Ottawa, by whom the breed is recognized as an authentic one, and they are entered in the stud book as such.

I am certainly in accordance with the fact that something must be done in regard to all the large dogs that run our streets, but at least definitely state what is what, and not leave the general public to think every dog of large size with erect ears a so-called police dog. I wish to emphasize that we only breed German shepherds, none of our dogs being called Alsatians or any other misleading names, and I believe we have the only two dogs on Vancouver Island that could legally be called police dogs, having earned this title in their homeland.

I am sure a law is not being passed just to refer to these two. I might also say it is the one dog owner who is largely to blame for the numbers of so-called police dogs infesting our fair city, as we breeders do not sell our females—we drop them at birth. We believe also, in only selling registered stock; if they are not good enough to register they are not good enough to sell. A piece of interesting news of the right kind came out in The Toronto Star of two weeks ago, to the effect the United States government had purchased several pairs of trained German shepherds to work in the federal penitentiary at Morristown, New Jersey. We here only seem to read the knocks, and there are plenty of them, even if they cannot be proven. A little more of the well-known British fairplay in regard to this controversy would be appreciated by myself and other shepherd fanciers on Vancouver Island.

NO CHANGE IN OAK BAY TAX

Budget Balanced With Same Rate as Last Year; To Extend Waterworks

Because of reserves created by the year and the surplus in the sinking fund, the Oak Bay Council has set its 1934 budget, without an increase in the current mill rate of twenty-six mills on land and on thirty-five per cent of improvements.

It has also been possible to carry out the policy which it has adhered to for several years of including a substantial appropriation for works during the year.

This latter undertaking this year will include a $12,000 expenditure on the extension of the waterworks system, to benefit the upper section of the municipality in the Highlands and other parts which will receive a supplementary supply.

Another factor which has made possible this undertaking in the waterworks is that relief labor will be used on part of the work. While the entire extension will not be carried out as relief policy, the council has been able to effect a certain saving because the cheaper labor will be employed on it.

AWAIT GOVERNMENT WORD

The council completed the budget last week, but withheld announcement pending word from the B.C. Government regarding municipal grants for the year. This information, however, was not available as soon as anticipated.

While the council is pleased to announce to the taxpayers the fact that it is hoped to be possible to complete this year without an increase, it is pointed out that an increase is inevitable within the next year or two. The municipality cannot keep drawing on reserve funds constantly and although the reserve fund councillors are anxious to keep the rate down, they state it will not always be possible to do so in the best interests of the municipality.

PRESENTATION TO HOSPITAL

Gideon Society Donated 200 Bibles to Jubilee at Function Yesterday

A gift of 200 Bibles yesterday evening was presented to the Royal Jubilee Hospital by the Gideon Society, at a largely attended function in the Empress Hotel, held under the auspices of the Gideons and the Victoria Ministerial Association. Rev. R. W. Mayhew presided.

The presentation was made by J. H. Taber, a member of the Gideons, who dealt with the history of his connection with the organization. S. J. Drake, chairman of the hospital board, received the gift, expressing the sincere thanks of his colleagues for the generous action of the Gideons.

"The Aim of the Gideons," was the subject of the address of the evening, given by Rev. E. F. Church, who sketched briefly the work which the organization did.

The invocation was read by Rev. Dr. W. G. Wilson and Rev. R. P. S. Luttrell read the Scripture lesson. Rev. F. Comley, president of the Ministerial Association, gave the prayer of dedication and benediction was pronounced by Rev. G. A. Reynolds.

Harold Davis was at the piano and the hymns sung were: "Unto the hills around do I lift up my longing eyes," "Hear Unto Me," an anthem by the choir of the Church of Our Lord; "How Firm a Foundation," "God So Loved the World," by the choir; and "Jesus Shall Reign."

BOAT WRECKED OFF OAK BAY

Two Victorians Have Difficult Time When Launch Strikes Submerged Reef

K. C. Cooper and William Ross, Victoria, narrowly escaped death by drowning on Saturday afternoon when their twenty-five-foot launch struck a submerged reef off Oak Bay, and they were forced to spend nearly two hours in the water trying to get it off. Severely humbled by the icy waters, the young men fought against big swells from passing steamers for some time. The hull yesterday was a total wreck, the engine being the only part salvaged. Tools and other equipment on the boat were removed by persons unknown after the men had gone ashore to change their clothes.

Mr. Cooper stated this morning he and his companion were bringing the boat around from Blenheim to Victoria. They were just off Newport Avenue when they struck the submerged reef. Their boat grounded, but with little difficulty they backed off and were prepared to continue on their way when large swells from passing steamers washed the craft back on to the rock again, and swamped the dinghy.

HOLE IN HULL

The hull of the launch was badly holed and the pair tried for two hours to shift it. Finally, when the sea had quieted, they were able to refloat the boat, which was anchored, while they went ashore to change their clothes.

They were only away from the boat for three-quarters of an hour and when they returned, tools, lines and other equipment had been taken. Police have been given descriptions of boats seen in the vicinity of the launch and it is expected the things will be recovered.

The accident occurred about 2:45 o'clock, and the boat was anchored in the bay Saturday night. Yesterday, however, it was found adrift by a tug of the Island Tug and Barge Company and towed into the Royal Victoria Yacht Club. There the engine was removed, the remainder being a total wreck after waves had battered the cabin.

Under the auspices of the Sanich Ward Two Non-political Ratepayers' Association a progressive 500 card party will be held in the Lake Hill Community Hall, this evening at 8 o'clock. The committee has selected good prizes and refreshments will be served.

FOUNDRESS OF NUNS SAINTED

Blessed Luisa de Marillac
—Canonized in Vatican
Ceremony Yesterday

Vatican City, March 12.—Blessed Luisa de Marillac, co-founder of the Daughters of Charity, yesterday was raised to the sainthood already attributed to her earthly associate, Father Vincent de Paul, in Vatican ceremonies. Pilgrims from many nations thronged to St. Peter's for the ceremonies over which Pope Pius XI presided.

The Daughters of Charity, founded by Saint Vincent and Saint Luisa in Paris in 1633, have 4,000 chapters run by 40,000 nuns in virtually every corner of the earth.

Cardinals Verdier of Paris and Lienart of Lille and Monsignor Emilio Lison, former Archbishop of Lima, were among those present in the cathedral. The ceremony reached its climax when the Pontiff enjoined that Blessed Luisa's name be inscribed in the catalogue of saints. Choir and congregation then sang a Te Deum and church bells thronged out Rome changed a pean of joy.

Saint Luisa turned to the church and consecrated her life to charity after the death of her husband, the Chevalier le Gras, in 1625.

ST. JOSEPH'S TO HOLD FETE DAY

Annual Linen Shower Is Planned for Monday,
March 19

Twenty-five Years Ago First Shower Was Inaugurated

St. Joseph's annual fete day, March 19, will be celebrated by the usual event of a linen shower, and an "at home," to be held in the pretty auditorium of the new home for the Nurses' Training School, on Collinson Street.

The unfailing goodwill shown yearly by former patients and friends of this popular and pioneer institution is gratifying to the nursing staff and the energetic convener of the linen shower, Mrs. Alex McDermott of Uplands.

The cordial spirit which pervades this time-honored function, as well as the attractive floral decorations, pretty tables, and fine service always carried out, in the hospitality extended by way of an afternoon tea, sans charge, reflects much credit upon those responsible for the annual organizing and carrying out of this large undertaking and ever-popular date in the calendar of events for St. Joseph's Hospital.

FINE PROGRAMME
The enjoyment of the afternoon is enhanced yearly by an excellent programme of songs and instrumental numbers very generously contributed by Victoria's outstanding talent in this line. The programme for the coming event is being carefully prepared and will be announced next week.

HELP LOCAL MERCHANTS
The annual linen shower of St. Joseph's has proved a real benefit to the local merchants for they have made a yearly practice of providing a special provision of linen for the event. They stock with extra care the type of article most needed, be it towels, sheets, napkins, bedspreads, etc. Each department store provides a receptacle for holding the contributions for the shower, purchased during some days previous to the event, and the merchants deliver the donation in toto to the hospital in a few weeks before continuing their journey to England via the Panama Canal.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS
Just twenty-five years ago on March 19, 1909, St. Joseph's Hospital inaugurated the first linen shower in the province for hospitals. The good work has not only continued with unbroken record and aided the institution but the good example thereon has spread and to-day every hospital, large or small, is on record for a similar helpful function at some date of the year.

Miss Mary Lawson, M.B.E., of Cook Street, went over to Vancouver Friday to spend the week-end as the guest of her nephew, Mr. Kenneth Raymur, and Mrs. Raymur.

Rev. Ralph Sherman, Bishop of Calgary, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Harrison in Vancouver, arrived in Victoria yesterday to spend some time.

Mr. H. R. Goldsmith, late assistant director of public works at Hongkong, and Mrs. Goldsmith, arrived from the Orient yesterday afternoon on the liner Empress of Asia, and will be guests at the Empress Hotel for a few weeks before continuing their journey to England via the Panama Canal.

After completing a three-year course in dietetics at McLeod College in Montreal, Miss Jean Walkem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Walkem, Spelling Avenue, returned to her home in Vancouver a few days ago. With her mother and sister, Mrs. John G. Baxter, Miss Walkem is at present spending two weeks in Victoria, the guest of Miss Annie Pawcett.

The parties that "popped in" from other affairs on Saturday night could not be accommodated at the Palais de Danse, every table being booked by 9:30. The night was so beautiful that the windows were thrown open and latecomers were content to sit in their cars and just listen to the music. Many visitors were present and after the dance complimented the "chef d'orchestra" for the brilliant playing of his men. Len Wagstaff and Zoe Milsted, entering into the spirit of "bonhomie" gave an impromptu "Carolea" which brought down the house.

Church Ceremony

Canadian Press

Ottawa, March 12.—In the presence of the Governor-General and Lady Bessborough, Prime Minister Bennett and a galaxy of parliamentarians and distinguished citizens of Ottawa, the twelfth annual Dominion convention of the Amputations Association of the Great War, was opened formally here yesterday, hundreds of legless, armless and sightless veterans attended a solemn memorial service in which more than 1,000 people joined.

The convention was declared open by Capt. The Rev. Sidney Lambert, Dominion president of the association, assisted in the service by Rev. R. H. Stacey, C.M.G.; Rev. Logan Venela, Rev. A. P. Menzies, M.C., and Rev. Norman Coll, all pastors of the Great War.

The ceremony, said Captain Lambert, was a tribute to the memory of those who had died and a challenge to those who lived, a challenge to every individual "to catch and maintain the spirit in which they lived and in which they died. It is our duty to hold in high regard and to hand down to children yet unborn something of the spirit which was exemplified in their dying."

FIGURES GIVEN
"We almost died, we amputations of the Great War," said the padre. "There are 1,194 who gave their right leg, 1,233 who gave their left leg, 469 who gave their right arm, 537 who gave their left arm; ninety-seven gave both legs and seven both arms, and there is one with us here to-day who gave all his limbs."

There are between 100 and 200 who are sightless in this fellowship called the 'Amps.' I am proud of them. It is a great joy to enter into their fellowship and catch their noble spirit. They can still sing and smile, and in these days of trouble, we want that song and that smile to spread all over Canada, to make people sing as they work to overcome their difficulties."

Following the service, the sightless, legless and armless veterans were received formally by the Governor-General and Lady Bessborough and Premier Bennett. Tea was served to more than 1,500 members and guests.

The business sessions of the convention proper got under way this morning.

CHINESE WANT
OWN CHURCH

Will Not Tolerate Outside Control Under New Nationalism, Says Bishop White

"If the Chinese church is allowed to carry on in its own indigenous way it may work out all right, but if the sending churches try to force control there will not be much chance for missionary work in China," declared Rt. Rev. W. C. White, Bishop of Honan, on his arrival in the city yesterday by the Ss. Empress of Asia from Kaiteng via Shanghai.

"Nationalism is too strong," added the bishop, augmenting his statement on church missionary effort in China. "The Chinese people are now demanding that the missionaries should work in China as Chinese, and this will have to be recognized."

The bishop visualized the time would come when the church in China would, in a very large measure, be self-supporting. In a certain measure, he said, it was even now. The time change in mission work in the Orient, and this will have to be recognized. He has been assisted in his work by an assistant Chinese bishop, Linzi Tsen, who may subsequently take charge of the diocese.

IS RETIRING

Bishop White is retiring after thirty-eight years in the Chinese mission field, owing to the illness of his wife. He is on his way to Toronto. "I am leaving here again April 22," said Dr. White, "to attend the general synod at Wuhu, and after winding up my affairs in the diocese of Honan shall retire permanently." He added his retirement would be effective at the end of the year.

PUBLIC HEALTH
COSTS REVEALED

Per Capita Cost in Victoria
$1.03, Six Cents Lower Than Formerly

Civic health costs in Victoria during 1933 were $1.03 per capita, six cents lower than the average for the preceding eight years, the statement of expenditures released by Dr. Richard Felton, city health officer, shows. Board of Health costs, including the Child Welfare Clinic, amounted to $12,056; the Isolation Hospital accounted for $6,934; the provincial laboratory, $6,700; Victorian Order of Nurses, $2,500, and school medical and dental services, $11,860, bringing the total to $40,050.

During the year the Victorian Order of Nurses, which undertakes the public health nursing, visited 1,730 patients, against 1,636 the preceding year. Against this increase was a simultaneous decrease of fees from $3,548 to $2,095. "Nothing could better justify the increased grant allowed last year for this indispensable service, and, of course, no curtailment of that grant can possibly be thought of at present," Dr. Felton stated in his report.

Has Czar's Desk
200 Years Old

Washington, March 12.—When Countess Boris Skinsky, President Bogdanov of Amtorg, and other Soviet agents discuss Russian trade with Harry Payer at the RFC, they lean their elbows on a desk once used by the Czar.

It's a huge object of dark oak, intricately carved in female cupids, bearded garzies, acorns and what-nots in the French renaissance style. It has secret compartments, is 200 years old and resembles nothing else you'll find in any government office.

It reposed in the Winter Palace of St. Petersburg until the Soviet government sold it to someone who sold it to Payer.

Payer is special counsel to RFC's export and import division. As assistant secretary of state, he was called "Mr. Pickwick," because he looks like that. He says he can work better if things he likes are around him.

So he also has a big Italian screen with pretty scenes painted on it, his own drape, and a painting by Robert "Evening in Venice"—which lights up if you pull a chain. Everyone in RFC has come to the Payer office to take a big look.

HORSE AND BUGGY DAYS

Would the Floradora Girls Pack
The House To-day---and Don't
You Miss the Old Fire Horses?

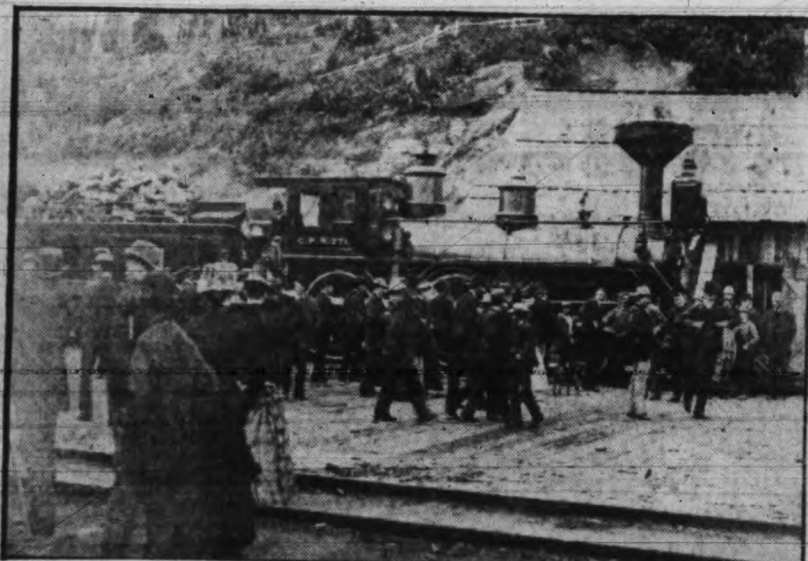

The scene of sextette appeal in 1900. The original Floradora girls, whose coquettish charm set a whole continent to ogling and to whistling the catchy "Tell Me, Pretty Maiden, Are There Any More at Home Like You?"

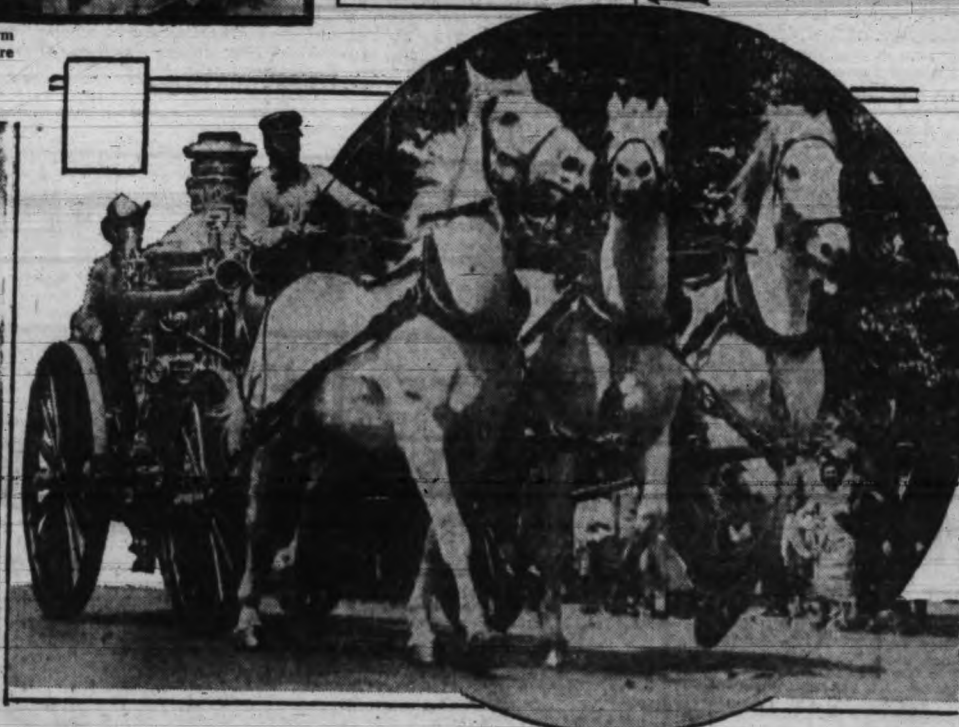

Left—Throughout the whole of the latter half of the nineteenth century, Joseph Jefferson starred in the well-loved "Rip Van Winkle." Here the famous actor of a past generation is seen garbed as the aged Rip returning home after his sleep of twenty years.

Of course, you recognize Henry Ford at the right, but who do you suppose is holding on to the handle of this ungainly juggernaut? None other than Barney Oldfield, who drove "Old 999" to new speed records in 1902.

This odd-looking Canadian Pacific Railway engine with a smokestack that really looks like a funnel had the residents of Port Moody, B.C., all agog when it arrived on its maiden trip half a century ago. For many years Victoria had an engine of similar lines to the above. It made daily trips between Victoria and Sidney, and was popularly known as "The Cordwood Limited." These old engines look almost absurd alongside the gigantic models of to-day. But they always got there, even if they had to stop on the hills to get up steam. They were great factors in opening up the continent.

A thrill that has gone. Motorized apparatus can never quite take the place of the clatter of hoofs, the rumble of iron tires, and the smoke and sparks trailing behind the old-time fire engine. And the kids who chased the wagon got no bigger thrill than the magnificent horses that pulled them. Many years have passed since the big pumping engine drawn by the three white horses dashed from fire headquarters on Cormorant Street.

Two titans of baseball who are no longer in the players' dugout. Left is John J. McGraw, who died the other day, and Christy Mathewson at the time they were engineering the Giants' world championship in 1905.

That is Clark in the window above, smiling down upon an assortment of star-gazers outside the theatre where he was making a personal appearance.

"Your Backyard Garden"

PRUNE ROSE BUSH WELL TO GET GOOD BLOOMS

Then Cover All Cut Ends With Tar or Thumb Tacks to Prevent Spread of Beetles and Fungus

This is the second of a series of articles by Donald Gray, famous landscape consultant, on how to make a beautiful garden of your back yard.

By DONALD GRAY

The rose, Canada's most widely known flower, is grown in all provinces.

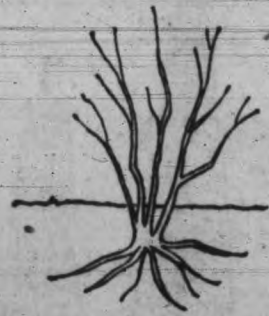

The rules governing the raising of good blooms apply to every climate. Nothing equals the joy of producing a perfect flower, and if success is to be expected, certain conditions must prevail.

There must be drainage at the bottom of a good clay loam soil bed. Manure or a commercial fertilizer is essential. Spraying for insects is necessary, but the most important item in raising good roses is proper pruning at the time they begin growth in the spring.

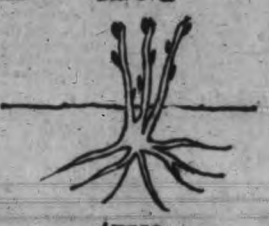

Even if the buds are swollen or just coming into leaf, prune the stems severely. Roses bloom on the new wood they produce this season, so that any stem taken off now is not destroying flower buds already formed.

Prune all hybrid perpetuals or tea roses as follows:

First, cut out all dead wood. If dead stems extend below the surface of the ground, dig the earth away and remove all of them. Do not leave a dead stump even below ground.

How to prune a rose bush.

Next, plan to leave three or four strong thick canes and take out entirely all the balance or smaller ones. Then cut these large ones so as to leave three or four eyes or buds on each stem.

Some buds are quite dormant, so cut above the third or four bud, leaving the tip bud as the strongest one. It may be that only one dormant bud remains below this growing bud, and this is sufficient to produce a good flower bearing stem.

Cut the stem diagonally close to the bud. Remember, if you leave a stump above the bud it will decay and be an excellent entrance for the rose beetles or for fungus.

a stem, try to choose one that will grow away from, instead of into, the centre of the plant.

Use a sharp knife or pruning shears. Thumb tacks sometimes are used on the ends of the stems that are cut, to prevent the beetle from laying its eggs. An application of tar will accomplish the same purpose.

Tuesday—Plan before planting for pleasing effect.

LOGGERS REJECT WAGE SCHEME

Vancouver, March 11.—Striking loggers on Vancouver Island yesterday evening voted against accepting the wage scale proposed by Deputy Minister of Labor Adam Bell, in their negotiations with camp operators.

The loggers rejected the scale $29 to forty-six, but decided to continue negotiations with a view to adjusting differences between Mr. Bell's scale and the one they demanded prior to going on strike.

The deputy minister set a minimum of $2.45 a day, while the strikers ask $3.20 as the lowest wage.

The children of Foul Bay have raised $60 of the $100 that is needed for the erection of a memorial fountain in Hollywood Park. They hope to raise the remaining $40 by a rummage sale to be held on March 31. Information can be had by telephoning Master Gordon Hope, G 2227, or Miss Matie Griffin, G 2840.

Y.P. BIBLE CLASS

Sponsored by the Young People's Bible Class of the Naval and Military United Church, 150 children and adults gathered yesterday evening to enjoy a fine concert. The programme opened with a solo by Miss Jerry Patterson, accompanied by Miss Ruby Wallace. "O Canada" was then sung as an illustrated slide was thrown on the screen. Rev. Hugh Nixon with his lantern presented an amusing set of pet slides which were manufactured locally. Flower gardens and orchards of British Columbia were also shown and the evening closed with a set of transcanada slides of the Canadian National Railways.

Mistook Himself For Shakespeare

New York, March 12.—Another agent has just snowballed in from the suburbs with a tale of one of these CWA companies of actors who go about giving plays in school auditoriums, museums and—in this case—a mental hospital. Some of the more normal patients were assigned as stagehands, and one fellow appeared so rational that an actor got to questioning him.

"Don't get any peculiar ideas about me," said the man confidentially. "I'm perfectly all right, but I'm a friend of the superintendent and he asks me to help with affairs like this from time to time. You see, having written so many plays, I'm quite familiar with the mechanics of the theatre."

The CWA actor was impressed. "Of course I didn't suspect that you were a—patient here," he stammered. "But may I ask your name, sir?" The fellow struck a haughty pose. "Why, you poor ham!" he exclaimed. "I am William Shakespeare!"

The unseen lineup

OF COURSE there are enough doors to let people into Mr. Smith's store without crowding. If there were not, Mr. Smith would provide more doors. He would never permit a lineup outside his premises. But he has overlooked the telephone entrance to his store—the telephone lines by which many of his customers do business with him. He hasn't enough telephone lines. There's an unseen lineup at the telephone door. Customers are often delayed by finding all lines busy. If Mr. Smith isn't careful, the annoyance caused will result in loss of business.

EXPERIMENTS ON ANIMALS

Anti-vivisection Society Is Asked for Expression
Of Opinion

G. B. Killo presided over an important meeting of the local anti-vivisection society, held recently, when an interesting communication was read from the Animal Protection Society of Brno, Czechoslovakia, asking for expressions of opinion regarding certain phases of animal experimentation, the object being to take action to prevent vivisection. The organization also called attention to the recently reported revolt of 2,000 doctors in England against "anti-quoted orthodoxy with its theory that germs are the cause of disease."

Letters were read from societies in Calgary, Vancouver, Montreal and Chicago. The National Anti-vivisection Society in Chicago, of which George Arliss is the honorary president, stated that it was arranging a vast publicity campaign against animal experiments, supported by prominent leaders of thought. Mr. and Mrs. George Arliss are life members of the Victoria organization.

The local society will hold its annual birthday celebration on Saturday, April 7, at the Balmoral Hotel, through the courtesy of Mrs. Fowles. Miss Killo, honorary secretary, reported having written to the editors of moving pictures relative to alleged cruelty to animals in films exhibited here recently.

The society expressed its sympathy with the family of the late Miss E. J. Hart, a valued supporter of the cause. Mrs. K. Jenkinson of Banff was complimented on the fine work she is doing to assist the work. Several new members, including two life members, have been enrolled.

"Social Organization of Japan" will be the subject of an address to be given by W. H. Wilson at the weekly dinner meeting of the Round Table Club, to be held in Speedie's Restaurant at 6:00 o'clock Tuesday evening.

Violet Smyth, Saanich, Re-

At Capitol Theatre

Violet Smyth, of Mackenzie Avenue School, Saanich, was presented on Saturday afternoon with the handsome trophy which she won as first prize for the 500-word essay contest on "The Life of the Prince of Wales," as it was presented on the screen at the Capitol Theatre several weeks ago.

The presentation was made on the stage during the afternoon show, and a crowded theatre applauded Miss Smyth as she received the cup, donated by Joseph Rose, jeweller, Ivan Ackery, manager of the theatre, made the presentation. She was also given a month's complimentary ticket to the theatre.

J. A. Colbert, principal of the school, who attended the presentation, stated Miss Smyth would also receive an award from the school.
This will be given to her this week.
Miss Smyth's essay was judged the best of the large number of entries received in the contest, and received additional points for neatness. Several other prize-winners, previously announced, also won complimentary tickets to the theatre. The contest was open to pupils of public schools

RAPS ISOLATION HOSPITAL HERE

Victoria's Isolation Hospital is obsolete and a cause of expenditure, but its lack of efficiency is in no way attributable to the present staff, Dr. Richard Fulton, City Health Officer, states in his annual report for 1933.

The extract from his yearly statement dealing with this institution, follows:

"The expense of the upkeep of our Isolation Hospital has again been brought to the attention of my health committee and at the present moment the matter is being referred to the directors of the Jubilee Hospital. At a time when every department is being urged to cut down expenses to the utmost, it still seems to me an unfortunate thing that no definite action can be taken in such an obvious over-expenditure of money as is entailed in this respect."

TAG DAY TO AID RECREATION ROOM

Arrangements by the special committee for the tag day next Saturday, in aid of the funds of the Citizens' Recreation Rooms for unemployed men, have been completed.
Promises of numbers of volunteers workers have been received from several of the church organizations and from one or two other bodies but many more workers are needed and the committee appeals for help.

A. H. Hundley, the secretary,
E 6932, or Mrs. Styles Sehl, will be glad to hear from anyone willing to give an hour or two between 8 a.m.
and 6 p.m. on that day.
The committee also appeals to the general public for their goodwill in the shape of contributions on that day. Funds in hand now are only sufficient to carry on the institution into May, and the general committee is convinced that the rooms will still be greatly needed throughout the next winter.

MEETING

A meeting of the Mount Newton
Parent-Teacher Association will recently held in the Mount Newton
High School, with J. J. Young presiding.

A ground committee was appointed to work in conjunction with the school board, with a view of perfecting a plan to develop the clearing of the school grounds for playing purposes. The school board has agreed to donate $250 if the Parent-Teacher Association will raise the same amount. Telephone bridge parties and dances will be arranged to raise the necessary amount. The grounds committee includes the following:
Mr. A. G. Smith, principal of the high school; N. Gray, T. Gilbert, H.
C. Oldfield, Rev. J. S. A. Bastin, L.
Thompson, D. Ballantyne, J. J.
Young, H. C. Young and E. Oakes.
The Ladies' Aid Society of the South Saanich United Church met at the home of Mrs. L. Hafer Sr., for its regular monthly meeting, Miss L.
Deering occupying the chair.

The afternoon was spent in making final plans for the St. Patrick's tea and sale of work, which will be held in the church parlor Wednesday afternoon, March 14. In the evening a programme will be given and refreshments served. Tea was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Florence Hafer.

ST. MATTHIAS TROOP

P.L. Jack Green took the opening of the regular meeting of the St.
Matthias Troop, which was held last Monday night in the Wildwood Avenue hall at 7:30 o'clock.

After the opening the winners
badge was presented to Alec Merriman and the debate table to Lee Leighon. During patrol instruction, which was given next, the boys who were taking the Saturday night course in signaling, formed themselves into a class for practice. Major Hunter announced that the troop had purchased sixteen full-length signaling poles.

After a strenuous game of "Duster Hockey," P.L. Tom Anstey took the closing. The Woodpigeons will be duty patrol for next week.

The First Cathedral Troop held its regular weekly meeting on Friday evening. The meeting was opened by P.L. R. Heddle, after which inspection was held. The patrol then broke to their corners where they were given half an hour's instruction by their patrol leaders. This was followed by two long games, after which the meeting closed.

AT PLAYHOUSE

Lionel Barrymore in a scene from "Rasputin and the Empress," now showing at the Playhouse Theatre.

ROMANO THEATRE

"Jack's the Boy" is the feature attraction at the Romano Theatre today. Jack Hubert plays the leading role with Cicely Courtneidge and Winifred Shottler in their latest comedy musical hit together. The picture is full of humorous situations and as a London baby Jack Hubert is a riot.

"Ghost Valley" combining whirlwind action with mystery thrills, Tom Keene's latest picture sets a new standard of screen entertainment of the outdoor variety.

Saskatoon Quakers Capture Paris Cup

Paris, March 12.—Saskatoon Quakers defeated Boston Rangers 3 to 0 in a hard-played hockey game Saturday night, securing their goals in the second and last periods.

The Canadians, runners-up last year in the Allan Cup series, obtained the thirty-seventh victory in forty games of their European tour, on goals by Jim Dewey, Cliff Lake and Tracy Rogers. Dewey's goal came in the second period when Quakers pulled away from the Americans. The victory gave the Quakers the Paris Cup, emblematic of the city title.

New Seats At The Columbia

The Columbia Theatre opened today with the entire theatre completely renovated. John Garrard, manager of the theatre, said: "We have installed the finest seats obtainable in western Canada. They are of the air-cushion type and we feel they will considerably add to the comfort and pleasure of our patrons."

The programme this week opens with one of the finest musical treats ever brought to the screen, "The Blue Danube." The story concerns the fate of stage and sweethearts who are visiting Budapest with their Roman band and find life so different in the city to the freedom of the forests.

A beautiful romance is woven into the picture, but the delightful feature is the playing of Alfred Rode and his Royal Tzigane Band.

The added screen feature is "Lily Turner," Ruth Chatterton's latest picture. She is admirably supported by George Brent and Guy Kibbee.

"Rasputin" At The Playhouse

"Rasputin and the Empress," probably the most discussed motion picture of the year, opened today at the Playhouse Theatre, following its successful run at the Astor Theatre in New York and extended showings in the principal cities of the United States. John, Ethel and Lionel Barrymore are starring in the three principal roles of the production, appearing together for the first time on the screen during their respective careers.

"Rasputin and the Empress" is based on an original story by Charles MacArthur, well known for his work on "The Front Page," "Lulu Belle" and other stage and screen dramas. The picture was directed by Richard Boleslavsky, author of "The Way of a Lancer" and "Lances Down," and for several years following his earlier work with the Moscow Art Theatre, a prominent figure in Hollywood.

CAPITOL THEATRE

As strange a cargo as any animal ever disgorged was discovered in the 100-year-old crocodile that participated in one of the spine-chilling scenes of "Devil Tiger," the Fox film of the Asiatic jungles, now playing at the Capitol Theatre. The reptile virtually lashed himself to death in the process, and Clyde E. Elliott, director of the picture, ordered him stuffed and sent to America as a souvenir.

DOMINION THEATRE

"Queen Christina," with Greta Garbo and John Gilbert, is now at the Dominion Theatre.

The picture, a spectacular presentation of seventeenth century romance as depicted in the life and loves of Sweden's famous queen, is primarily historical because it brings Gilbert back to the theatre fans after his announced retirement to private life and after a five-year screen separation from Garbo.

MINE OUTLOOK IN B.C. IS GOOD

W. J. Asselstine, M.P.P. for Atlin, Sketches Gold Recovery Process to Gyros

"There is a very healthy picture from the mining outlook in northern British Columbia. We have a good mining act, a good Minister of Mines and efficient deputy minister and the people of British Columbia can expect a square deal as far as mining is concerned," W. J. Asselstine, M.P.P. for Atlin and superintendent of Premier Mint, told members of the Gyro Club at their luncheon in the Empress Hotel to-day.

His statement followed a discussion of the recovery of gold from ore at the Premier mine, where he is the superintendent.

There were many different methods of recovering gold, he remarked, adding he would confine himself to the one used in his own locality.

Recovery of gold from ore which had previously been considered worthless had added great activity to his district, he said.

METHODS OF CRUSHING
The speaker referred to the various stages of ore crushing, noting a decreased efficiency in the secondary stage. Briefly he described the principle of the gyratory crushers, which had been superseded by the cone crusher which did twice the work of the same cone as the gyratory machine.

From the cone crusher the ore was sent to the grinding machine where it was further reduced in size.

Use of rod and ball mills in this work and the classification of ore are described. He spoke of the fine grinding required for gold ore, noting that process was one of the most important and expensive of the work.

When Premier Mines had started in '21, three processes had been used. The first was the cyanide process which, with the aid of chemicals, formed a gold precipitate. That, however, could be used only on certain types of ore.

Asselstine said.

By the concentration system was introduced the mechanization of the old mining system. The product from a third means of segregating the minerals was the flotation process, which was a scientifically developed means of separating the minerals on the principle of amenability to various sulphides to attach themselves to gas or bubbles of air which carried them to the surface of a oil container, where they were skimmed off. A high grade flotation concentrate was the result.

Mr. Asselstine spoke of the scientific development of the flotation in various places, particularly at Trail. At Premier new methods of flotation were being used.

Do You Know?
How the word "donkey engine" used in logging camps, originated? Candy is essentially a food product. It adds digestion and gives a pleasant taste. Stevenson's delicious chocolates or Candies should be on every dinner table. After each meal or before retiring in the evening eat a few candies or chocolates. You will feel better and it relieves that tired feeling, if they are the Kind You Like.

Ans. As machinery has now replaced the donkeys once used on the log skids and logging camps, the name has been given to all engines or machinery so replaced.

MINING AID IS PROPOSED

Committee Suggests Plan to Deal With Reverted Crown Grants

The mining committee of the Legislature this morning approved a change in mining laws which would provide for the acquisition of crown-granted mineral claims reverted to the government.

It was stated that many taxes on claims which have reverted for a period longer than ten years, amount to $74,000 and it was considered that the accumulated taxes was a deterrent to many claims being leased and crown grants.

Under the plan approved this morning claims which reverted more than ten years ago would only carry back taxes for ten years. The surveys on these claims would be retained and the original owners will be given ninety days in which to redeem them. After ninety days anyone might lease such claims on payment of $25 per claim and acquire crown grant by paying not more than ten years' back taxes.

The report dealing with legislative service bureau and organization work of the Dominion command, presented a picture of growth and progress since the last Dominion convention at Niagara Falls in 1931.

We have always had due regard for the responsibilities of those in authority and for the welfare of the state."

Faces Charge in Vancouver; School Janitor Died Of Injuries

Vancouver, March 12.—Terry Dunnigan, eleven years of age, was held by Vancouver police to-day, charged with the murder of Alexander Gibb, fifty-four, school janitor, who died in a hospital Friday from injuries received February 28, when he was badly beaten in a street attack.

Three seventeen-year-old youths, Norman Bowman, Joseph Rogers and Bert Banks, all of New Westminster, were held as material witnesses to alleged statements of Dunnigan.

The youths were arrested Saturday in a government relief camp south of here where he was registered under the name of Frank Morris. Police say the arrest followed information supplied them by Bowman.

Dunnigan's parents told police the youth was in his home at the time of the attack on the janitor, and his father stated Terry is not nineteen as he claimed, but is aged fifteen and a half.

Gibb died as the result of an internal rupture. He did not attempt to resist the attack during the time he was in the hospital.

Detroit Finches American Section Honors In National Hockey

THE SPORTS MIRROR

Pettinger Scores Overtime Counter To Defeat Chicago

Red Wings Nose Out Black Hawks 3 to 2; Maroons Beat Rangers 7 to 3

N.Y. Americans Definitely Out

Their gallant bid for a bit of the playoff spotlight denied, New York Americans sadly joined Ottawa Senators and Boston Bruins to-day in the oblivion reserved for weaker National Hockey League teams at the season's end.

Americans' 8 to 5 defeat by Toronto Leafs Saturday night and Montreal Maroons' 7 to 3 overtime win from New York Rangers left Amerks out in the cold and made it certain Maroons and Canadiens will share second and third positions in the Canadian division when the regular league schedule closes next Sunday night.

There may be changes in their placements before the curtain is rung down but the American threat has been dispelled and the Montreal teams decide on their remaining two games which will finish second to Toronto Leafs. At present Canadians lead by two points.

The same situation is present in the United States division. Detroit Red Wings made certain of first place and the right to meet Toronto for the league championship by beating Chicago 3 to 2 yesterday evening. Hawks and Rangers have three games each to play before they decide which will finish in the runner-up spot. The New Yorkers now have a point edge.

WHIP OTTAWA

Canadians made sure of a play-off position last week but this failed to halt their run and they took Ottawa 3 to 2 in overtime Saturday night. They must play Detroit twice this week and need the two-point edge over Maroons if they intend finishing in the playoffs.

Four quick goals in overtime gave Maroons yesterday evening. Earl Robinson scored for Maroons and Ching Johnson scored for Ottawa. The first overtime goal was scored by Earl Robinson. He gave the New Yorkers a two-goal lead in the middle frame but Irving Frew got one back before it was over and the third period only gave the Canadiens a one-goal lead.

Mokey Smith, the Montrealers' great centre, gave them the winning goal less than two minutes after the overtime started. He passed to Baldy Northcott who scored. The third period was a struggle. Russell Blinco, brilliant Maroon Rookie, rapped in two goals that made the game more than sure. Ottawa was two goals up on Canadiens going into the third period. In the third period, Max Kaminsky and Allan Shields having scored in the second. Then Aurel Joliat got going in his best form and Jack Portland passed to him for the first Habitant marker. Just forty seconds after the third started.

PETTINGER HERO

Gordon Pettinger was the hero of the overtime affair at Detroit yesterday evening, scoring the winning goal on a shot from centre ice. Aurie and Eddie Goodfellow both got goals in the first frame and held Hawks off until the third when Paul Thompson banged two pucks past Whit Gude. Leafs' snipers had a field night at Toronto Saturday. Twenty-five scoring points were got during the game, but except for the heavy scoring, Leafs got seventeen of the points with Red Wings and Hawks getting two goals each and Harvey Jackson, Charlie Conacher, Bill Thomas and Alex Levinsky sharing the others. Eddie Burke and Klein each got two for Amerks and Red Jackson the other.

ICE FINALS WILL START

Edmonton and Vancouver Open Northwest Playoffs; Gainer Top Scorer

Vancouver, March 12.—Nosed out of first place in the standings of the Northwestern Professional Hockey League by Calgary Tigers who gained the top slot by reason of their better goal average when the two teams tied in points, Edmonton Eskimos start out tonight to clinch a sensational season's play. In the final game of the league schedule at Seattle Saturday night Calgary beat Vancouver 12 to 3.

The Edmonton crew of tried and proved veterans, who jumped from early season cellar occupants with five straight defeats to a tie with Tigers, meet the youthful Vancouver Lions here to-night in the first of a two-out-of-three-game series for a berth in the finals against Calgary. Eskimos are top-heavy favorites to take the speedier but less experienced Lions into camp and four veterans are looked upon to stop the Vancouver youngsters' little aspirations.

Calgary, March 12.—Six points garnered in the last scheduled game of the Northwestern Hockey League by Norman "Dutch" Gainer, Calgary Tigers, in a game against Vancouver Lions, brought him the scoring crown of the league. The six points, four of which he collected in the final period, raised his point-total to 43, three more than Jimmy Evans, Portland, and Art Gagne, Edmonton, mustered during the season's play.

Gainer's points were made up of twenty-four goals and nineteen assists. Evans had twenty-one goals and nineteen assists, while Gagne's points came from thirteen goals and nineteen goals and twenty-one assists.

Henry Bracconier Seriously Injured in Amateur Game At Atlantic City

Atlantic City, N.J., March 12.—Henry "Red" Bracconier, robust playing right defence star of Baltimore Orioles, to-day lay in a hospital here suffering from a broken neck.

Physicians said while his condition was serious he had a "good chance to recover."

The injury occurred during Friday night's game here between the Orioles and the Atlantic City Sea Gulls, United States champions and present leaders of the eastern amateur league.

Bracconier, enraging the puck near his own defensive zone, started to stickhandle speedily toward the Gulls cage. He was checked by "Red" Twilley, footballer and hockeyist of Montreal, and Vernon Tuplin, Brantford, Ont. The Oriole crashed heavily to the ice and was carried off unconscious.

At first it was believed he was merely suffering from a wrenched neck. An X-ray examination at the hospital revealed, however, that Bracconier had a fracture of the fourth cervical vertebra.

New York Giants Have Confidence

World Baseball Champions Determined to Capture Second Straight Championship; Travis Jackson's Comeback Is Outstanding Feature

Miami Beach, Fla., March 12.—If ever a club believed in itself and its destiny, it is the New York Giants, champions of the world and as spirited a band of basketball players as the game has known in at least a decade.

They have a chip on their shoulder for anyone who thinks they were lucky to capture the pennant and win the world series of 1933. They have already got a big jump on all rivals in training this spring. With the start of the season a month off, they are in more advanced condition than any other big league team in Florida.

"Who," asks manager Bill Terry, "is going to stop a crowd like this? We've got the best pitching staff in baseball, the best all-round infield in the league and the best defensive outfield."

MANCUSO SICK
 Typical of the whole team's remarkable spirit is the reaction to the comeback of Travis Jackson, the team captain, who has displaced the colorful Blondy Ryan at shortstop after being on the bench for the better part of two years with a pair of collarbone knees. This extraordinary development means the benching of a championship hero, but Ryan himself has been cheering for Jackson. The only thing Terry has to do much worrying about is the illness of Gus Mancuso, the number one backstop, who is not yet in camp, due to an attack of typhoid.

RUGBY DRAW
 London, March 12.—The draw for the semi-finals of the Rugby League Cup was made to-day as follows: Glasgow vs. Widnes vs. Oldham. Huddersfield vs. Hull.

Aussie Team In Brilliant Stand

Launceston, Tasmania, March 12.—Showing brilliant form at the wickets the Australian cricket team that will tour England this summer to-day rolled up 415 runs for loss of only four wickets in reply to Tasmania's first-innings score of 345 in a match that concludes to-morrow.

P. M. Woodfull, the Aussie captain, opened the batting auspiciously for the test team in partnership with young W. A. Brown. Woodfull completed 126 runs and Brown added 36.

Defeat North Shore 1 to 0 in Intercity League Engagement Here; Scotty Stewart Scores Lone Counter Both Teams Off Form

Victoria United, local entry in the Intercity Football League, scored its first victory on Saturday afternoon at the Athletic Park by nailing out North Shore United 1 to 0 in a hard-fought match that failed to produce much good football. The game, played on a lightning-fast pitch under perfect conditions, attracted a crowd of well over 1,000. It was the Victoria club's second engagement in the league, their first match against New Westminster here ending in a 3 to 3 deadlock. The only goal of the match came from the boot of Scotty Stewart, inside right, fifteen minutes after the opening whistle.

The exhibition saw two teams of the kick and rush style in action with the result that neither was able to settle down and turn in a sound performance. The Shores on several occasions attempted to use a short passing attack but the bustling breaking up tactics of the local halves always ruined this style of play as the visitors went back to long passing and fast breakaways in an effort to crash the Victoria defence. The match was not an interesting one to watch, although the Victoria victory sent the fans home fairly well pleased.

GOOD DEFENCE PLAY

The performance of the Victoria backs and halves was outstanding. They turned in a smart exhibition keeping the North Shore line bottled up at all times. Louis Costa in goal was just as reliable as ever since several times during the match blocked shots that looked like certain goals. The weak point of the local play in their forward line was the lack of a reliable centre. The long goal scored by Stewart was the result of a faulty clearance by one of the North Shore backs. The Victoria forwards were unable to get settled all afternoon. John Watt worked hard at centre forward while Noel Morgan, after a poor showing in the first half, came to life in the second period and showed flashes of his real form. Harry Youson, right wing, was starved the great part of the match, while Ernie Bertridge and Stewart were off colour. The former worked hard but got nowhere.

In the latter stages of the second half the Shores attempted to rough up matters in an effort to break up the entire match the visitors' exception to the decisions of the referee. Ralph Anderson and several started arguments over his calls.

For the first ten minutes of the match the ball travelled up and down the field on long kicks. By the seventh minute the halves with their respective backs and halves with neither team dangerous in front of the goal. Victoria and the first-goal opener when Stewart, after a great kick, Morgan and drove into the side of the North Shore net. The game was held up when the new ball was punctured by Hannah in taking a free kick. Another one was soon kicked on the field and play resumed. North Shore looked dangerous when Demsey took a shot from a distance but the penalty area, but his hard shot was blocked by Joe Watt. Minutes later DeCosta turned aside a sizzling drive from McNicol and rushed off to push the rebound behind the goal.

ONLY GOAL

Victoria took up the attack at Hannah, right back for the Shores, attempting to clear lifted the ball into his own goalmouth and Stewart hooked a twisting shot into the net for Victoria's goal. Pamphlet, via goalie, made a great attempt to block the shot by diving, but he finished off lying on the ground with the ball in the net. Shortly after John Watt rushed the ball through himself, but was too slow in shooting and Harrison tipped the ball to find the line for a corner. Morgan's cross was cleared as the halves whistled.

North Shore forced a corner in the first minutes of the second half as Thom missed the corner by itself with a header. McNicol's cross at the other end John Watt was only to be whistled offside. T. Shores came close again when a sizzling drive from McNicol sailed across the goalmouth and was cleared by Victoria goal and out to the end. Pamphlet made a fine save from McNicol and cleared him out of his net. Youson sent in a lovely cross but Morgan missed. Head, Victoria came close as Stewart drove a free kick into goalie's hands. The final whistle found North Shore on the attack.

The teams follow:
 Victoria: De Costa, Jones, bones, Williams, Barnes, McBay, Young, Stewart, John.
 North Shore United: Pamphlet, Hannah, Harrison, Russell, Hunt, Thom, Henderson, McNicol, Demsey, Spencer, Ashton, McQueen, a Harlie.

Drive Through Three Goals To Hand Motherwell Surprise Defeat in Scottish Football; Return of Veterans Big Aid to Arsenal

Canadian Press

Glasgow, March 12.—Mighty Motherwell's chance of getting the championship of the Scottish Football League received a nasty jolt Saturday when Glasgow Celtic on their own grounds administered a 3 to 0 beating to the Fir Parkers.

Meanwhile Glasgow Rangers, champions last season, came through a hard test at Tynecastle to beat Hearts, 2 to 1, in a keen struggle, which put the Rangers only one point, half a game, behind Motherwell, and with two games in hand.

The matches were played in bleak showery weather and on soft grounds. At Glasgow, the Celts, recently thrust out of the cup, made the clever Motherwell eleven look weak in front of the goal. H. O'Donnell headed in the first goal in thirty minutes, and F. O'Donnell had the second on a penalty. Robertson saved another sure goal, but H. O'Donnell repeated in the second half.

Hearts and Glasgow Rangers staged a ding-dong struggle. Smith and Marshall scored for the champions, and Hearts succumbed to Third Lanark, 2 to 1. Brelin scored twice for Lanark, while Wilson scored for Hearts.

Airdrieonians succumbed to Third Lanark, 2 to 1. Brelin scored twice for Lanark, while Wilson scored for Hearts.

Cowdenbeath, battling desperately to get out of the cellar, managed to hold Dundee even, 1 to 1. Robertson for Cowdenbeath and Rennie were the scorers.

PLAYER ORDERED OFF
Kilmarnock collected points from St. Johnstone, cup contenders, beating them 1 to 0 on Little's goal. Clark, the Saints' leftback, was ordered off the field after an argument. St. Mirren, left in the cup with St. Johnstone, Rangers and Motherwell, were beaten by the Hibs, who scored all four goals of the game through Smith, Kavanagh and Walls.

Dunfermline toppled Arbroath from the top of the second division, but the battle for promotion continued close, with only half a game behind.

London, March 12.—With the veterans Hulme, Jack and James back in the line-up the Arsenal showed something like their old form Saturday and defeated Aston Villa 3 to 2 at Highbury, thereby getting revenge for the Villans' knocking them out of the cup competition.

The Gunners, however, are paying the penalty for their mid-week defeat at Leicester, for Huddersfield Town won 3 to 2 at Leeds, thereby keeping in a tie with the Gunners for the first division leadership. Arsenal has a slight advantage on goal average.

Derby County in their place slipped back by losing 1 to 0 to Portsmouth, cup contenders, while Tottenham strengthened its hold on fourth place by splitting the points in a 1 to 1 tie at Middlesbrough.

Fifty thousand turned out to see the Arsenal take the lead almost at the start of the struggle with the Villa, a trick passing move ended in Jack scoring in the minute on a terrific shot from a short distance out. Within ten minutes Dix equalized, and then Houghton gave the visitors a 2 to 1 winner.

HULME GOES TO WINNER
In the second half, however, the Arsenal outplayed their opponents and after Robertson had tied it 2 to 2 on a corner shot the Gunners attacked brilliantly. Hulme scored the winning goal on a great left-footed drive.

Clever forward work by Huddersfield gave the team a couple of easy goals by Smith to lead over West Bromwich by 2 to 0 at half-time.

West Bromwich staged a revival and W. O. Richardson scored, but Huddersfield later got the upper hand again and Rawlings scored a third after a brilliant individual run. Sankey reduced the Albion's deficit in a spasmodic raid at the end.

Derby County came a cropper when they ran into Portsmouth, cup semi-finalists along with Aston Villa, Manchester City and Leicester City. Incidentally Portsmouth and Manchester City were the only cup teams winning. Leicester being held to a 1 to 1 draw at Everton. The game at Derby was the closest of the evening for Portsmouth, coming from Wembley's foot during a scramble in the goal-mouth.

The Spurs are a point behind Derby and five points behind the leading couple as a result of the tie at Middlesbrough but the London team played glorious football and would have deserved a victory.

The luckless Chelsea Pensioners, fighting to avoid relegation, battled Newcastle United to a 2 to 2 draw.

A CLOSE CALL
Gregg was unlikely not to give Chelsea a victory as he hit the upright on a fine shot in the last minute of play. Previously Boyd had opened the scoring for Newcastle on a header with Gibson equalizing before the half-time whistle. In the second half Weaver gave Newcastle the lead again on a penalty shot but Gibson again equalized.

Grimsby Town, second division leaders by a goodly margin, and Swansea Town showed some fast and thrilling football before they wound up in a 1 to 1 tie in the Welsh town. Lowry scored for the home team, while five minutes, Bestall scored the equalizer in the second half.

Norwich City in the southern section of the table, still has a lead of six points and can be fairly certain of getting up into the second division. In the northern section the scoreless tie at New Brighton, while Stockport was wallowing Darlington into a 6 to 0 defeat, did not cheer Chesterfield up any.

Vancouver, March 12.—Nanaimo and Marpole played a scoreless draw Saturday in their second division English Rugby League semi-final, to mark their second draw of the week. The teams had previously played, 3 to 3 tie in the first play-off game.

ENGLISH VARSITY CREWS IN TRAINING

On March 17, Oxford and Cambridge will put on their annual boat race, an event which is eagerly awaited by Britons throughout the world. This year the Oxford crew has been particularly unlucky through sickness, and still has two men out of the crew, and it looks as if the Cambridge crew will again carry off the coveted event. The top picture shows the Oxford eight pulling their weight as they put on a spurt in practice on the Thames. Below is the Cambridge Light Blues pulling strongly as they row over the river at Goring.

Special to The Times

Nanaimo, March 12.—McCormack's goal from a penalty kick in the last half of the overtime play, gave Harewood Athletics a 3 to 2 victory over the Motor Levels, in a Davis Cup soccer fixture played here yesterday afternoon.

Brilliant goalkeeping by Bamford, Harewood net custodian, saved his team from defeat. Time and time again when his club was beaten, Bamford pulled off sensational saves to rob the Motor Level forwards of what looked like sure goals.

Sandland and Gramb tallied for the losers, while McCormack with two goals and Tantrum with one, were the scorers for the winners.

GARRISON AND BAYS VICTORS

Chalk Up Wins Over Navy-Wanderers and Scottish in Cowichan Cup Rugby

Garrison's undefeated senior B rugby fifteen and the J.B.A.A. runners-up to the Fifth Brigade for the senior A title, will clash next Saturday in the semi-final of the Cowichan Cup series by virtue of their victories Saturday afternoon in the preliminary rounds. The Tommies from Work Point scored an impressive 13-to-3 victory over the Navy-Wanderers at Admirals Road, while the Bays eked out a 3-to-0 win over the Canadian Scottish at Oak Bay Park. Played under ideal weather conditions, both matches drew good crowds.

Showing a marked superiority over a fighting Navy-Wanderers combination, Garrison were full value for their 13-to-3 victory at Admirals Road. The Tommies' scrum, backed out more often than their opponents, while their backfield, which showed plenty of speed, displayed some fine runs. Navy-Wanderers' backs had little opportunity of showing their ability, as their forwards seldom heeled the ball out of the scrum.

CROSS GARRISON LINE
While they went down to a 12-to-3 defeat in a hard battle, the Navy-Wanderers gained the proud distinction of being the first club to cross the Garrison line in league or cup play.

From the first blast of Referee Ley's whistle the teams hit a fast pace, and despite many dangerous attacks by the rival fifteen, the first half went scoreless. Graham, Garrison forward, left the field fifteen minutes before the rest interval, suffering with an injured shoulder, and the lads from Work Point were forced to finish the game with fourteen players.

Opening their second-half play with renewed vigor, the Garrison gained the first points of the match when Galbraith, flashy wing three-quarter, culminated a fine backfield run by scoring near the corner flag. The kick was short.

Still having the edge, Garrison made it 8 to 0, with Galbraith's speed enabling him to evade his pursuers and race for a touchdown. The kick failed.

Navy-Wanderers netted their lone point about half-way through this play when Lindsay, Garrison full-back, was smothered in attempting to run a kick up the field. In the scrum that followed, Symons picked up the loose ball, raced past a number of Garrison players, and passed to Locke. After racing about five yards Locke passed to Sweet, who went over near the flag. The try was not converted.

WARD SCORES
Garrison returned the play from the kick-off and discounted the Tommies' few minutes later when Ward fielded a loose ball, raced past yard scrum, making the score 9 to 3 in favor of the Tommies.

The final score of the match came just before the final whistle, when Rowton scooped up a loose ball following a fifteen-yard scrum and raced over the Navy-Wanderers' line. C. E. Ley refereed.

The teams follow:
Garrison—Lindsay, Buxton, Loveless, Pocock, Galbraith, Stewart, Martin, Wharton, Rowton, Graham, Featherstone, Lee, Woodrow, and Ward.

BAYS DEFEAT SCOTTISH
Carmichael's lone try in the early minutes of the second half gave the J.B.A.A. squad a 3-to-0 victory over the Scottish in a great battle at Oak Bay Park.

Play in the initial half favored the Scottish, but they failed to display the punch to carry the ball over the Bay line for a score. J.B.A.A. had an edge in the second half, despite the fact that they were forced to play with fourteen men. At the rest interval it was discovered that Carmichael, J.B.A.A. backfield man, had cracked a rib in the initial half.

Scottish opened on the offensive and during the early stages of the game forced play in the J.B.A.A. territory, but could not get over the line before being pulled down by Parrot, Bays' fullback.

J.B.A.A. forwards carried the play to midfield following this close call, but the Scottish backs gained possession and broke away, and Dunn tried a field goal but failed.

CARMICHAEL GOES OVER
Bays started on the offensive in the second half, and were soon in the lead when Carmichael went over the Scottish line following a line-out. Lemm's kick was wide.

Many spirited attacks were staged in the remaining play, with the rival squads coming exceptionally close to scoring, but when the final whistle sounded the J.B.A.A. were still holding their 3-to-0 score.

Aubrey Walls refereed.

The teams follow:
J.B.A.A.—Parrot, Rogers, Brown, Beck, Macmurchie, Addison, Carmichael, McKennie, Peard, Lemm, Robbins, George, Montesi, Petticrew and Tobin.

B.C. Rugby Team Is Badly Beaten

Touring English Code Players Suffer 14 to 3 Setback At Hands of California All-stars; Second Straight Defeat for Tourists

San Francisco, March 12.—The British Columbia English rugby team has a record of two victories and two losses to show for their California tour to-day.

They were on the short end Saturday of the most one-sided game played so far, when an all-star team from this section beat them 14 to 3. Previously they had lost to University of San Francisco sides victories over Stanford and California.

The visitors seemed to be off-form in their tackling, and unable to break up the California passing movements. Twice in the first half the local backfield scored after pretty passing rushes. Fred Schlichting, former California football player, taking the ball over each time. Lausten failed to get the extra points.

SCORES ON PENALTY
Normington got the Canadians' only points on a twenty-five-yard penalty place kick after missing a penalty kick earlier.

Lausten and Ron Collins proved too elusive when they got away with the ball and each went over for tries in the second half. Lausten converted Collins's try.

The Californians showed that they had picked up the fast-passing game of the English code.

The teams follow:
British Columbia—Normington, Sutherland, Moran, Bain, King, Dwyer, Mitchell, Ono, Roxburgh, Van Horne, McDonald, Rowe, Rose, Fraser.

United Clubs—Lausten, Skinner, Manelli, Taylor, Wood, Fickert, Flood, Campbell, Mason, Collins, Lausten, Tomlinson, Schlichting, Clark, Graff.

Upturn At Chicago Acts Favorably On Winnipeg Wheat Pit

(Canadian Press)
Winnipeg, March 12.—Offerings were light on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange to-day, and the market, favorably affected by upturn at Chicago, closed steady at levels 1/2 cent lower to unchanged.

There was nothing to enthuse over in the day's operations and closing figures were the same as the opening quotations. May finished at 69 1/2, with July at 71 1/2 cents.

Trading was very narrow. For the most part futures moved with a 1/2 cent range. Operations were mixed in character.

Offerings were well held and there was no pressure of wheat. Export sales were small. The upturn in Chicago had a sentiment effect on the Winnipeg price action.

Liverpool wheat was steady. Chicago climbed about 1 1/2 cents from the low points.

Cash grains trading was slow. Coarse grains operations were dull.

A Mystery Novel

By K. S. DAIGER

(Copyright by Macrae-Smith Company)

"When I went home that night, I gave the pendant back to Sunny. 'Here's your precious jewelry,' I told her. 'I don't want it.' 'She grabbed it and looked at it but she didn't seem to notice anything.'"

"That was Saturday night. I almost prayed that the market would go up on Monday and I wouldn't have to use the pearl. But it didn't—it had an even worse break and I was told to put up the $50,000 or I'd be sold out. I got twenty-four hours' grace and that afternoon I drove over to see Mrs. Brooks. I expected to have dinner with her and to return home immediately afterward; but she didn't have the pearl. I wanted ready money and not her cheque. She had to send out after it and she tied things up for a while."

"I came back just as I told you and found—well, the rest is absolutely true. I've told you all that before."

"Where's the pearl now?" "Mrs. Brooks had it. It did have it. She paid me for it and I used the money to protect myself in the market. I sent her word by—"

"Go ahead. You sent her word by whom?" asked Anderson, just as if he did not already know. "I don't want to get anyone else in trouble," hedged Paige.

"You've got a lot of trouble to get yourself out of," commented Anderson. "Well, by Kirk Judson. I knew the fellow by reputation and I knew he'd take care of me for enough money."

"You would probably have paid him blackmail the rest of your life," said Anderson quietly. "But Paige shook his head. 'You do him an injustice, inspector. He charged me practically nothing and said that all he'd ask in return would be an opportunity to get at the true facts surrounding my wife's death.'"

"I see," said Anderson, with a sly wink in my direction. "Mr. Judson is very open and honest in his pursuit of crime just now. Now here is another question, Mr. Paige. I want you to tell me fully and in great detail all that you know concerning the housekeeper, Mrs. Deane."

"To my great surprise, Paige showed the greatest agitation. 'I can't do that, inspector,' he protested. 'Why not?'"

"Well, Mr. Deane simply idolized my wife and Sunny loved her. I was not a good husband, but if Sunny could cry out from her grave now, I know that she would implore me not to answer your question. I've buried my heart in my hands and began to sob."

Anderson was plainly puzzled. "But, Paige, if she could possibly have been connected with your wife's death—"

"She wasn't. I am certain of that. Besides I promised that I would tell you nothing about her and I'd like to keep my word. Find it out for yourselves, if you want to."

"If that's your attitude," began Anderson, "then I'm sorry but I shall have to order your arrest."

CHAPTER XXVI

Paige glanced at the two plain clothesmen and shrank away. He understood that Anderson could be merciless when he so desired. "Very well," he answered at last. "I'll tell you, but I hope you'll tell Mrs. Deane that you won't do it out of me and that I didn't want to do the truth, there was a time when I was known as 'Cat's-eye Annie.' Guess the London police can give you the facts. Anyway she was accused of the murder of an old woman for—"

Uncle Wiggly's Maple Sugar

By HOWARD H. GARIS

"Wood! Wood! Every one must get wood!"

It was Uncle Wiggly who was calling this and he was shouting at many of his rabbit children and some other animal girls and boys who were in the sugar camp with him.

"Why does your father want so much wood?" asked Johnny Bushy tail, a squirrel boy, of Buster, a rabbit.

"He needs the wood to make the fire under the kettles and to keep the sap from freezing. He's going to boil the sap from the maple trees to make it into maple sugar and syrup," said Buster.

"Do you think he'll give us any of the maple sugar after it's made?" asked Jackie Bow Wow, a puppy dog boy.

"Of course he will!" said Baby Bunty, the orphan rabbit. She was there with the other animal children helping Uncle Wiggly. Then the rabbit gentleman called again:

"Wood! Wood! More wood!"

"He ought to have the woodchuck boys here. They'd get wood for him," laughed Peetle Bow Wow.

"Oh, I guess we can get enough!" bleated Billie Wagtail, a goat. The children scattered through the woods to gather sticks and branches for Uncle Wiggly to make the fires which would boil the sap that already was dripping from the tapped trees.

Remember how the rabbit gentleman wanted maple sugar and syrup for his pancakes, and when there was none left in his hollow stump bungalow he decided to go to the forest with little houses of bark, where he and the animal children could stay for about a week.

whom she was a maid. She was tried on the charge and came mighty close to being convicted. Police said it was homicidal lust—or something like that. But they couldn't prove any motive and she got off."

"She was once Sunny's nurse and my wife had always loved her. Her own mother was dead, and old Deane had really been a second mother to her. So she went after her and brought her home to live with her as a maid. Maybe old Deane was bad once—but she hasn't been since then. She loved my wife devotedly and would gladly have given her own life for hers."

"Why didn't you want to tell us about her?" asked Anderson. Like the rest of us, he was amazed at Sunny Paige's failure to relate this tale of the maid with the homicidal lust."

"Well, she knew that she didn't do it and she knew that you would believe that she didn't. After the other case, even if she was acquitted, nothing could hurt her. I was sorry for the poor old soul."

"Why were you willing to do it?" persisted Anderson. "Surely you knew the importance of this. The woman may be crazy and have murdered your wife in a fit of insanity. How was her other mistress killed?"

Paige stared miserably at the Scotland yard men on the office door. "Strangled!" he gulped at last. "And yet you never told us!" exclaimed Anderson. "Come, tell us why not?"

"Because she knew that Sunny and I had quarreled terribly on the two days before she was killed—Saturday and Sunday. She heard me threaten to take the level and she knew that I was in the devil of a hole about money. I promised that I wouldn't mention any of these things to the police. And she knew that I was."

"Yes!" prompted the inspector. "She knew that I had had some girls out there while Sunny was away?" Paige hung his head in shame and dejection.

"Anything else?" "No—that's the whole truth, so help me God!"

"That's all for to-night then," said Anderson rising. "Jones, you accompany Mr. Paige back to his hotel, Reynolds, you may wait here while I write out a warrant for Mrs. Deane's arrest. Bring her in as soon as you can locate her and let me know at once. We will hold her for investigation and as a material witness."

Anderson seated himself at his desk again and rapidly penned a few lines. Then he turned to us. His face was lined with worry and worry.

"It's beyond me," he said. "A husband who steals from his wife—a frenzied lover craved with jealousy—and a maid with a homicidal lust. God help us! It's a puzzle of puzzles who could have killed poor little Sunny Paige—but of which one did I think?"

Mrs. Deane was arrested that same night. No formal charges were placed against her, but the story leaked out that this was none other than the famous "Cat's-eye Annie" whose sensational case in England ten years earlier had been one of the greatest criminal trials ever held.

The newspapers dove into their archives and dug up the story, and the cables between Baltimore and London were hot with the demand for information from Inspector Drew of Scotland Yard.

There wasn't so much to the story, I thought. Mrs. Weatherly, a prominent English society woman, had been found strangled to death, lying on the floor of her bedroom. Anna Deane, a perfectly respectable elderly woman, had been in her em-ploy as a maid, and suspicion had been fastened on her when all other angles had been eliminated. Due to a slight defect in one eye, some startling reporter had coined the phrase "Cat's-eye Annie."

To get the sap out of the trees in his sugar camp Uncle Wiggly made little holes in the trunks of the trees. Out of these holes the sweet, white sap dripped into little bark pails, which Mr. Longears made of bark and little spigots or spouts of wood which were driven into the holes of the trees.

When the children had gathered much wood for the fires, Uncle Wiggly and Mr. Twistytail, the pig, and Mr. Stubbytail, the bear, went about among the trees gathering the sap buckets, which were nearly full.

By this time the fires, for there were several of them, were glowing hot. Over each fire Uncle Wiggly hung a big pot or kettle in which the sap could boil. So the fire would not burn them, each pot was hung over the fire in gaily fashion, with a chain. The chain, being of iron, would not burn.

"Well, here's where we start making maple sugar!" shouted Uncle Wiggly, as he and the sap-gatherers came in with the bark pails full of what looked like water. The sap was just the color of water, which, as a matter of fact, has no color at all.

Into the kettles over the fire was poured the white sap. There were three fires in three separate places in the sugar camp. The first fire was looked after by the boy rabbits. The second fire was fed with wood by the girl rabbits. The other animal children—dogs, goats, squirrels and little bears—looked after the third fire.

Soon the white sap began boiling in the three kettles. It bubbled and seethed as the tea kettle does just before breakfast. And as the hot sap boiled, more cold sap dripping from the trees into the bark pails, was poured into each kettle over the three fires.

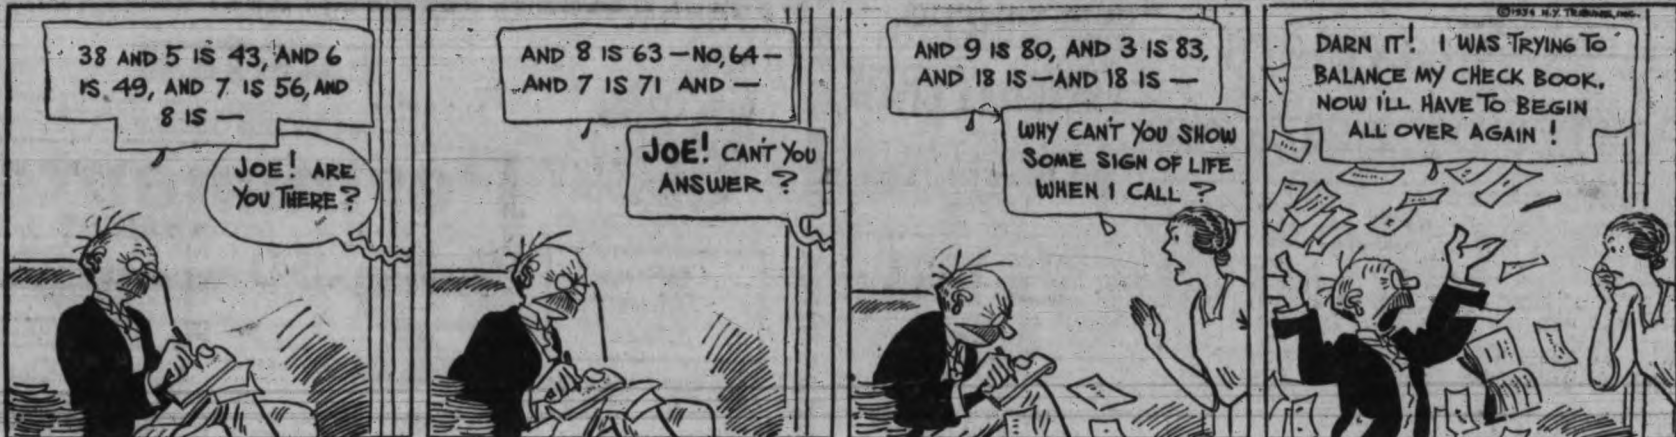

Every now and then Uncle Wiggly would dip out a little of the boiling sap to see if it was getting thick enough to turn into sugar or syrup. But each time he said:

"It needs to boil longer." You know, when you're making molasses candy it must be boiled until it is ready to harden.

Uncle Wiggly was just getting ready to take out some of the hot sap and let it turn into maple syrup when, all of a sudden, Baby Bunty shouted: "Some one is coming!"

Who it was and what happened you shall hear in the next story, which will be about Uncle Wiggly and the Bob Cat's nose. And I hope the coal shovel doesn't jump over the back of the pussy cat's sister.

Orient Travelers Arrive By Empress

Most of Passengers Aboard Ss. Empress of Asia Yesterday En Route to Europe; Crowds Visit Docks To See White Liner Discharge Varied Cargo

With a small but interesting list of passengers the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Asia reached Rithet Pier yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from ports in the Philippine Islands, China and Japan. She proceeded to Vancouver two hours later. Capt. A. V. R. Lovegrove, R.N.R., master of the ship, reported a good voyage across the north Pacific. Head winds a few days ago delayed the ship several hours.

A white liner at the ocean piers on a Sunday always draws a large number of people to the dock and yesterday was no exception to that rule. Several hundred people gathered at the piers to see the big ship and watch longshoremen unload her cargo from the Orient. There were silk and spices and gold bullion, rice and bamboo ware, porcelain and other general freight from the Orient.

THE PASSENGERS

Passengers aboard the big ship included H. E. Goldsmith, late assistant director of the Public Works Department of Hongkong, who will spend a few weeks in Victoria with Mrs. Goldsmith before proceeding to England; K. T. Fawcett, assistant manager of the Glen Line, en route to England; Major M. H. A. Campbell, British Army officer from Hongkong, en route to England with Mrs. Campbell and Miss Campbell; Mrs. E. Stringer, wife of an official of the Shanghai Waterworks, going to England; J. H. Green, Far Eastern manager of Thomas Cook and Sons, with office at Shanghai, also en route to England; N. T. Hawkins, prominent business man of Manila, going to Europe; G. N. Hallett, representative of the Standard Oil Company at Yokohama, en route to New York and Europe and Mrs. H. Buttman, wife of the German consul at Yokohama, proceeding to Germany to visit relatives.

For the first time since September, the Empress of Asia will have more than a week at Vancouver. During her last two visits she has been on a quick turn-around, making up the time she spent in drydock at Hongkong. She will sail outbound this time on Saturday, March 24, passing through Victoria in the late afternoon.

WILL EMBARK HERE

Passengers who will join the ship at this port include Mrs. T. L. Thorpe-Double for California; Mrs. John Chapman and Miss Hilda Chapman of Chicago, returning to their home after visiting in Victoria with relatives; Mrs. E. N. Williams, Miss J. Williamson, Miss G. de Baynes, Lawrence Mallett, Miss Leona Jackson of Vancouver; Mrs. E. R. Sugerman of Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. D. Olcott for New York, and Thomas Kerrigan, former assistant police commissioner of Shanghai who arrived in visiting Victoria since his arrival earlier in the week by the Ss. President Jefferson.

Others sailing from Victoria to-day by the Santa Rosa include Walter H. Johnson, a former president of the Philadelphia Electric Company, with Mrs. Johnson; Dr. and Mrs. Irving M. Lupton of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bailey of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. A. Patrick of Seattle; for New York; James Fylen, manager of the Nelson Steamship Company at Seattle, on his wedding trip with Mrs. Fylen; L. Howard Smith for Havana, H. C. Siehl, physiologist with the United States Department of Agriculture at Seattle; Mrs. J. S. Power of Seattle and Miss Frances de Graff of Yakima for California.

Havana, March 12.—One strike breaker was killed and nine wounded in a clash between strikers and strike breakers on the war line docks today.

It was the first serious incident on the waterfront since the dockworkers' strike began. Since Friday, strike breakers, protected by soldiers, had been laboring as stevedores.

TELLS OF CALL AT LONE ISLE

Copy of Radiogram Sent From Ss. Atlantis From Tristan de Cunha Received Here

A copy of the interesting radiogram sent to the London office of the Royal Mail Line, announcing the arrival of the cruise liner Atlantis at Tristan de Cunha, the isolated island in the south Atlantic, midway between South Africa and South America, has been received in Victoria by F. N. D. Robertson, well-known yachtsman and antique dealer of this city.

Mr. Robertson's cousin is making the cruise on board the Atlantis and the ship's radiograms are sent to Mr. Robertson's sister in Dumfrieshire, Scotland, and in turn sent out to Victoria. Passengers aboard the Atlantis left addresses of relations and friends at the London office and when a radiogram is received it is copied and sent to the address. Mr. Robertson has received several from various ports on the liner's itinerary but the most interesting is the one telling of the visit to Tristan de Cunha. It reads in full: "Monday, February 22, arrived Tristan de Cunha, 8 a.m. Weather conditions favorable. Inhabitants rowed out to greet us. All stores landed. Padre left at 11 a.m. By cheerless Bunsen-burner transported ashore in sealskin boat. Islanders boarded Atlantis and were presented with delicacies and clothing in exchange for which passengers received souvenirs. During afternoon the womenfolk came aboard and were entertained to tea. At 5 p.m. after saying goodbye, ship weighed anchor and proceeded on voyage to Capetown, where she is a.m. 24th. A. Purvis, commander."

FLOATED FROM ROCKY LEDGE IN PUGET SOUND

SS. OLYMPIC

Seattle, March 12.—The ferryboat Olympic, which went aground early Saturday in upper Puget Sound and from which twenty passengers were taken off by coastguard patrol boats, was refloated shortly after midnight Saturday, the coastguard was advised today.

The Olympic was pulled off Minot Ledge by the tugboat, and grounded at 4 o'clock in the morning about five miles off its course.

It will only be out of service for a few days, officials said after an examination.

The Olympic is well-known at Victoria. For several years she has been in summer service between this port, Bellingham and Port Angeles.

SEARCH FOR MAN

Seattle, March 12 (Associated Press).—Police here had been asked today by the federal authorities to aid in a state-wide search for Cameron McIntosh Bean, thirty-five, who escaped Saturday evening from the federal road camp at Fort Lewis. It was believed Bean might head for the border, as he has a wife living in Vancouver, B.C.

Rules For Canadian Ships Are Modified

Seattle March 12.—Restricting the assignment of convoys, either customs vessels or customs officers to Canadian towboats or other Canadian vessels proceeding to place not ports of entry on Puget Sound, an amendment has been made to the order of Collector of Customs Paul Haas, issued recently.

Effective immediately, the issuance of permits to Canadian towboats to proceed with or without tow from the original port of entry in this district to a place which is not a port of entry will be subject to the following conditions:

Written application must be made for the permit, setting forth the facts of the case and reciting that the applicant agrees to reimburse the government for the compensation and expense of the customs officers, or officers, placed on board the vessel, and to pay any overtime compensation that may accrue as in the case of other vessels, the transactions to be charged against a single entry or vessel term bond.

SHIP RESCUES FISHBOAT CREW

Ss. Westerland Takes Four Men Aboard From Sinking Boat

Halifax, March 12.—A thrilling rescue at sea completed, the big Red Star liner Westerland sailed into harbor yesterday with the crew of the Halifax fishing schooner G. E. Levy. They were taken from their disabled craft a few hours before as she tossed at the mercy of a raging gale.

Death had come close to Capt. Charles Hebb and his three seamen in the fourteen hours they spent in the storm. Their tiny schooner was dismasted, and her storm-strained hull was leaking badly when the liner sighted distress signals early yesterday.

The Levy was twenty-four miles west of Chebucto Head then—about twenty miles from her position when the gale bore down. The Levy had left here Saturday morning and was returning with 2,000 pounds of fish when the blizzard struck.

In the dense snowstorm, Capt. Hebb and his men could see scarcely a vessel's length ahead, and they have to. Through the night the wind held strong at forty miles an hour. The Levy, her timbers strained by the battering of the seas, was taking water fast.

"It looked pretty desperate from 4 o'clock on," Capt. Hebb, a Lunenburg mariner, said as he and his mates met reporters aboard the Westerland. As dawn the forecast went. The stick crashed down on the deck and the crew of the sea, was taking water fast.

With nothing to keep her head into the wind, the Levy wallowed in the trough of the sea, washed by the huge waves. "We were under water most of the time," the captain said later. But the ten-ton vessel withstood the pounding of the sea, though her sudden hull was dipping lower into every comber. It was 11 o'clock when the blizzard lifted finally. The wind's strength remained unrelaxed, but visibility became clearer. An hour and a half later, off to port, the men on the Levy sighted the liner and were taken aboard.
